MRS. VINCENT SANFORD WILL RETURN TO ROME

Rumor That She Had Fled in Disguise Is Pronounced a Fake.

IS NOW WITH FRIENDS FEW MILES FROM ROME

Mrs. Sanford's Attorney Knows Where She Is, and Says She Will Return Tonight—The Jury To Try Sanford Is Drawn.

Rome, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Mrs. Sanford will be present in Rome tomorrow night.

A rumor was started this morning to the effect that Mrs. V. T. Sanford had left this city for parts unknown. The story soon spread and came like a thunderclap to Rome.

Mrs. Sanford had protested so vehemently her determination to see the whole thing through to the end that it was seemingly incredible that she could have left at this critical moment.

Mrs. Sanford's attorney pronounces the whole thing a fake and declares that he knows just where Mrs. Sanford is; that she left on purely private business, with his full knowledge and consent; that she is with friends within a few miles of Rome, and that she will be back in the city not later than tomorrow night.

The report that Mrs. Sanford had run away was received with grave misgiving by her friends, and as it was impossible to see her attorney during the morning, the report was at first accepted as a fact.

The denial from her lawyer when he was seen relieved a very tense situation.

An absurd story was started this morning to the effect that Mrs. Sanford had flown in the disguise of a man. The truth is she left dressed as usual and carried a grip with her.

The jury was drawn this morning and at 10 o'clock tomorrow the trial of this sensational case will be commenced. Mr. Sanford is eager for trial, expressing himself as very confident of prompt acquittal. His friends are just as confident as he is. On the other hand, the state's attorneys are just as confident that he can't go free.

Was Dressed as Usual.

The published report that Mrs. V. T. Sanford left Rome last night in disguise is the most veritable tommyrot and nonsense. Mrs. Sanford boarded an electric car under an arc light about 8:45 o'clock in view of several witnesses and was hauled to East Rome by Motorman Bert Lumpkin. All witnesses say she got on the train northbound dressed in her ordinary street clothes and got on the train at the depot.

SENTENCES OF DEATH ARE GIVEN TO THREE

Rawlings and Two Sons Are to Hang, One Going to the Pen.

TURNER IS CONVICTED WITH RECOMMENDATION

Alf Moore and Frank Turner Will Be Sentenced This Morning. Tears Were Shed by Mrs. Rawlings and Two of Her Sons.

Valdosta, July 31.—(Special.)—Judge R. G. Mitchell, at 8:45 tonight, passed sentences on J. G. Rawlings and his three sons, Milton, Jesse and Leonard. The scene was one of the most touching and dramatic ever witnessed in a court in this city.

The first three were sentenced to be hanged September 15, and Leonard was sentenced to life imprisonmnt.

When the elder Rawlings was asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, he arose and said: "I have a conscience that stands correct. You can no more pluck it than you can the brightness of the sun. Your sentence can do no more than kill. Pass it."

Milton received the sentence stoically and never opened his mouth. Jesse and Leonard burst into tears, and both of them said "I am innocent." Mrs. Rawlings and her two daughters were present, and on them the blow fell with crushing force, all of them weeping bitterly.

The jury in the case of Frank Turner brought in a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy at a quarter after 8 o'clock, and the sentences on the Rawlings were passed immediately after on the request of their council, Hon. John R. Cooper. Mr. Cooper immediately moved for a new trial, which will be heard on August 9.

The prosecution put up many witnesses. W. L. Carter and his wife and daughter were the first. They testified to the facts of the murder, giving the same testimony which they had given during the trials last week and the week before.

Alf Moore, convicted as one of the principals in the assassinations, was sworn and said that Turner had gone to him with a proposition to kill the Carters, saying that Rawlings wanted to hire a man to do the work and would give him (Moore) $100 if he would do it.

Says Turner Received Offer.

Mitch Johnson, colored, swore that Turner told him that Rawlings would give him $125 to kill Carter and his family.

Joe Gaddy, white, testified that in a conversation in his field one day with Turner and Gaddy Rawlings turned to Turner and asked him if he thought old man Carter would live to see the next frost, and witness said that Turner replied that he didnt know anything about whether he would or not.

Joe Bentley swore that he saw Turner and Alf Moore in conversation at Hahira on Saturday night before the assassination on Tuesday night, this being the time at which the state claims the trade was made with Moore by Turner to commit the crimes, the latter acting as an intermediary for Rawlings. The witness said that Rawlings had some time previously offered him $125 to knock out Carter.

The defense put up no witnesses and had Turner go on the stand and make a statement. He denied any connection in the matter and said while he had worked for Rawlings, and knew of his troubles with Carter, he had endeavored always to keep clear of any connection with the troubles of the white people. He told the jury that he was in their hands, that he had done what he could to establish his innocence and told them to do with him as they thought righ'.

Alf Moore and Frank Turner will be sentenced tomorrow morning, when the special term of the court will be permanently adjourned.

Judge Mitchell was brief in his remarks during the passing of the sentences. They were very touching, but fell with force on the ears of the large crowd packed into the court house.

WITNESSES GO TO ROME TRIAL

A Number of Atlantans Left Yesterday Afternoon to Testify.

The trial of Vincent T. Sanford, at Rome, Ga., on the charge of murdering George Wright, which will be held in that city today will draw a large number of witnesses from Atlanta, the testimony of most of them being largely relied upon by the defendant for an acquittal of the charge.

Yesterday afternoon some the witnesses, including the two chambermaids of the Bristol hotel, and Louie Callaway, the laundryman, left. This morning early J. D. McMillan, proprietor of the hotel; James T. Lofton, sleeping car conductor, and others will leave.

The outcome of the trial is awaited with great interest in Atlanta, the principals being well known here. Besides this fact, the local end of the affair, the fact that local witnesses will to a large extent determine the verdict of the jury, and the charge that Mrs. Sanford and George Wright, the deceased, stopped at an Atlanta hotel; all contribute to making Atlantans in general greatly interested in the solution of the mystery.

The defense seems to have scoured the city in getting witnesses for their side. The laundryman, Louis Callaway, who says Wright brought him a package of ladies' clothes, marked "San," to be laundried; J. D. McMillan, the hotel man, who has identified the photographs of Mrs. Sanford and George Wright as those of a couple that stopped at the Bristol three times, registering as "A. A. Jones and wife, of Chattanooga;" James T. Lofton, of 226 Courtland street, the Pullman car conductor who will be called upon by the attorney for the defense to testify whether or not Wright and Mrs. Sanford rode together on a train from Augusta to Atlanta, and men connected with the telegraph companies here who will be called upon to show the nature of the telegrams which it is charged Wright sent when he is alleged to have stopped at the Bristol hotel with Mrs. Sanford; all will occupy the stand during the trial of Vincent T. Sanford for his life.

McMillan Identifies Photograph.

J. D. McMillan, the proprietor of the Bristol, said yesterday that he could not go to Rome until 7:50 o'clock this morning as his business affairs prevented making the trip sooner.

"I hate to lose so much time from my business," he said to a representative of The Constitution yesterday, "but I suppose my testimony will play an important part in the court proceedings.

"The whole thing depends upon whether I can identify Mrs. Sanford as the woman who was registered as the wife of 'A. A. Jones, of Chattanooga,' and if she has disappeared as has been told me, why I can't even do that.

"I have seen a photograph purported to be of Mrs. Sanford and I am pretty sure it is the picture of the woman who was at my hotel. In the photograph she had on winter clothes, while when here she wore summer clothes, of course. You will remember her first visit to this hotel was on June 7, and her last visit on July 4th.

"Still, allowing for the change made by the different style of clothes, I think I can say almost with certainty that 'Mrs. A. A. Jones' and the woman whose picture I saw are one and the same person. The same can be said of 'Mr. A. A. Jones' and the picture I saw of the man purported to be George Wright.

"I had absolutely no way to tell that the man and woman who registered at my hotel were not what they represented themselves to be, man and wife, or I certainly should have expelled them from my hotel."

COTTON MEN ARE DIVIDED AS TO WILSON

Request That the Secretary Be Removed Not at All Unanimous.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT IS STANDING BY WILSON

Roosevelt Says He Wouldn't Accept Wilson's Resignation if Tendered — Peters, of Texas, Praises Wilson.

Washington, July 31.—(Special.)—The fact heretofore alluded to in these dispatches that cotton producers of the south are by no means a unit in demanding the resignation of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and the abolition of the bureau of statistics because of the recently discharged scandal, was shown here today in a most conclusive manner. Today's papers printed a dispatch from Atlanta in which President Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, was quoted as saying, among other things, that Mr. Wilson's resignation was absolutely necessary in order to inspire new confidence in the department. Today E. S. Peters, of Calvert, Tex., who has for some time been president of the Texas Cotton Growers' Association and is in addition a vice president of the Southern Cotton Association, sent the following telegram to Secretary Wilson, at Oyster Bay:

"In reference to the interview of President Harvie Jordan I would say I cannot indorse the same. The farmers and cotton growers of the south have implicit confidence in your honesty and ability to purge the department of all grafters, and hope the president will let nothing interfere with the great work you are now doing for them."

Peters Favors Wilson.

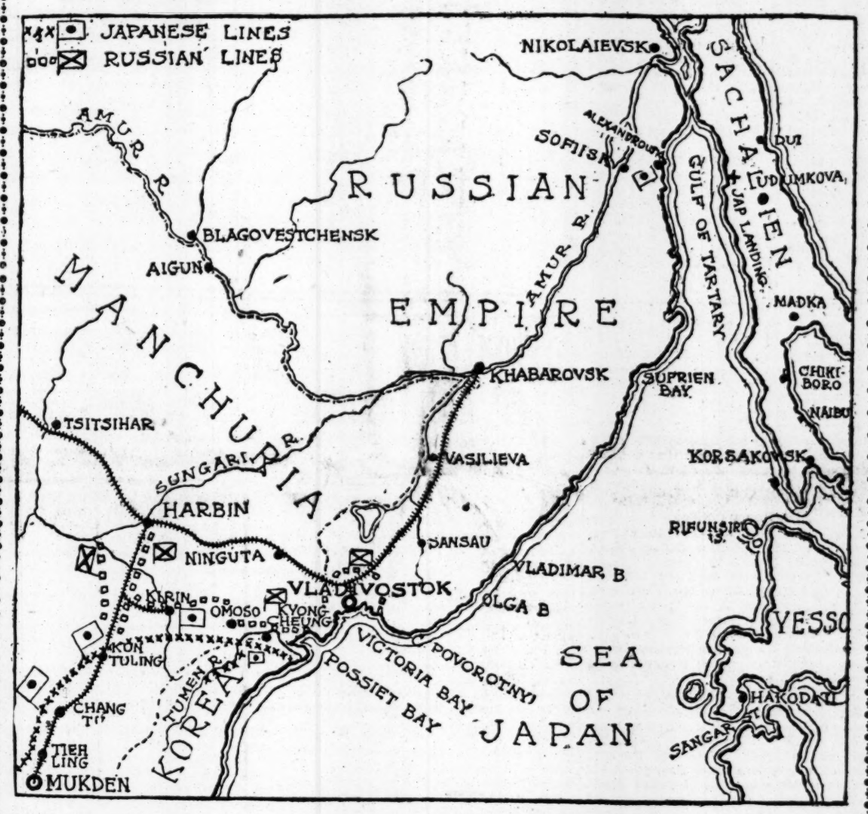

"The Southern Cotton Association has taken no action looking to a request for Secretary Wilson's resignation," said Colonel Peters in discussing his telegram.

"President Jordan may be expressing his personal ideas and I may now be expressing only mine, but the executive committee of the association has never considered a request for the resignation of Secretary Wilson. I am assured that the farmers and the cotton growers of the section west of the Mississippi will never listen to such a proposition. In our opinion Secretary Wilson is the only secretary we have ever had.

"The tremendous influence of the bureau of plant industry and entomology with which I am particularly conversant, is entirely his work. That work has meant millions to the south. I must take issue with President Jordan. It is possible the confidence of the secretary has been abused, but there is no reason to believe that the intelligent citizen of the south will confuse the cupidity of under officials and their abuse of the department with the reputation of Mr. Wilson. He has our confidence, and to charge him with incompetency or to assert that his days of usefulness are over is an unwarranted charge.

"There is no question that confidence in the department has been shaken, but no doubt of the secretary's ability to purge it of all grafters and restore it

TO CURB PLAGUE FIEND BY CLOSE OF THE WEEK

MAY FORCE DIRECTORS TO MAKE LOSSES GOOD

WITTE TO DINE WITH PRESIDENT

Baron Rosen Arranges for His Conferee.

Oyster Bay, July 31.—Baron Rosen, who recently succeeded Count Cassini as Russian ambassador to the United States and who is associated with M. Witte, chairman of the committee of ministers, as one of the envoys to the Washington peace conference, was a guest today of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt at luncheon. He remained at Sagamore hill for several hours, but during only a part of that time was he in conference with the president.

The ambassador's visit to the president was for the purpose of making arrangements to present informally his conferee on the peace conference, M. Witte, who is expected to arrive in this country from Europe tomorrow evening or Wednesday. The desire of Baron Rosen is to present M. Witte to President Roosevelt precisely as Baron Komura was presented last week by Minister Takahira, in advance of the formal reception which the president will tender the peace envoys and suites on board the cruiser Mayflower, next Saturday.

Arrived with Wilson.

Baron Rosen arrived in Oyster Bay at 12:20 this afternoon by train from New York. He was met at the station by confidential messengers of the president, who conducted him to an open surrey, which the president had sent to the station for him and for Secretary Wilson, of the department of agriculture, who arrived on the same train. The ambassador and cabinet officer did not meet, however, until they entered the carriage. Rain was falling slightly as the visitors left the train, but the shower passed over quickly, and in a few minutes the visitors were being driven to Sagamore hill.

It was arranged by the president and Baron Rosen that M. Witte should pay his informal call next Friday. He will be accompanied to Oyster Bay by Ambassador Rosen. They will be the guests at luncheon of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, and will have opportunity during the afternoon to discuss the pending peace negotiations.

Baron Rosen returned to New York on the same train, leaving Oyster Bay at 4:20 p. m. He declined to discuss his interview with the president, saying that it would be improper for him to make public any diplomatic matter.

Suit Filed Calling for Accounting of Stewardship of Equitable Officers.

IF COMPANY HAS LOST OFFICERS MUST PAY UP

Suit Brought in Name of People of State of New York by State's Attorney General Mayer, Recites All the Old Cnarges.

New York, July 31.—An action was instituted today by State Attorney General Mayer, in the supreme court, New York county, in the name of the people of the state of New York, against the Equitable Life Assurance Society, its officers, directors and members of the executive and finance committees, all of which are named in the complaint.

The defendants are: The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States and James W. Alexander, Louis Fitzgerald, Chauncey M. Depew, Henry C. Deming, Cornelius N. Bliss, George H. Squire, Thomas D. Jordan, Charles S. Smith, Valentine P. Snyder, Alvin W. Krech, William Alexander, John J. McCook, James B. Forgan, C. Ledyard Blair, Brayton Ives, Melville E. Ingalls, James H. Hyde, Alexander J. Cassatt, Jacob H. Schiff, James J. Hill, T. Jefferson Coolidge, Alfred G. Vanderbilt, John Jacob Astor, William C. Van Horne, Gage E. Tarbell, Marvin Hughitt, Charles B. Alexander, Thomas Dewitt Cuyler, Marcellus Hartley Dodge, Jose F. de Navarro, Bradish Johnson, Joseph P. Low, John A. Stewart, Edward H. Harriman, Levi P. Morton, August Belmont, Darius O. Mills, Robert T. Lincoln, George J. Gould, John Sloane, George T. Wilson, Thomas T. Eckert, William H. McIntyre, Henry M. Alexander, Henry C. Frick, Samuel M. Inman, Henry C. Haarstick, David H. Moffatt and Henry H. Winthrop. Edward H. Harriman, on the eve of his departure for Japan, accepted service of the summons, and today many other defendants, including James H. Hyde, were served through their private counsel. The defendants are allowed twenty days in which to file answer.

Asks Account of Conduct.

The complaint refers to the Frick committee report and the investigation made by State Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks and is based on information and belief. The complaint asks that the defendants, except the society itself, account for their official conduct in the management and disposition of the funds and property committed to their charge; that they pay the Equitable Society "any money and the value of any property any of them have acquired to themselves, or transferred to others, or lost or wasted by a violation of their duties;" that any of them now a director or directors or office holder in the Equitable Society, upon proof of misconduct, be removed, and a new election held by the board of the society to supply the vacancy; that the net surplus of the society, after deducting sufficient to cover all outstanding risks and obligations, be paid to, or credited to, or applied for the benefit of, the present policy holders in equitable proportions, in accordance with the charter and with law; and asks any further relief "as may be just, equitable and profitable."

The complaint charges that the individual defendants, as directors, "negligently, improperly and improvidently performed such duties and have habitually and continuously done, or suffered to be done, wrongful, illegal and improper acts," causing great loss and damage to the society.

Unlawful Transfers Charged.

The defendants are further charged with having "acquired or permitted transfer to others, money, property, etc., of the society."

Dealing with the lease of the premises in New York to the Mercantile Safe Deposit Company, the complaint says that rental was inadequate and disadvantageous to the Equitable society; that James H. Hyde, Alexander, Tarbell and other defendants were directors in the Mercantile Safe Deposit Company and thereby derived a profit in violation of their duty to the Equitable.

The complaint declares that the Equitable received but a nominal rent for the premises occupied by the Missouri Safe Deposit Company; that at the time of the stock purchase, 1,140 shares out of a total of 2,000 were owned by James H. Hyde and the remainder by others of the individual defendants, some of whom were officers in the safe deposit company and in the Equitable; the safe deposite company then had no assets beyond the lease and the good will.

The complaint charges that the individual defendants "wastefully, improvidently and improperly" permitted the society to make "large, excessive and unwarranted loans to agents," and sets forth procedure taken to avoid decisions of insurance commissions.

It also charged that the Commercial Trust Company, of Philadelphia, had on its books $4,237,249, composed of assigned balances and debts due from agents of the Equitable, on which the defendant society paid to the trust company 5 per cent per annum, although the sum was not taken from the trust company, and the trust company had on deposit large sums of the defendant society on which the trust company paid only 3 per cent. Very Hopeful View of Situation Taken by New Orleans Authorities.

CAN SOON LAY THEIR HANDS ON EVERY FEVER SUSPECT

Declared That Situation Is Much Better Than Appearances Indicate, and That Reports as to Number of Foci Has Been Exaggerated.

New cases up to 6 p. m.	21
New cases to date	302
Deaths to 6 p. m.	5
Total cases to date	203
New foci	5
Total foci	46

New Orleans, July 31.—By the end of the present week the authorities in charge of the fever situation believe that they will be in such thorough touch with conditions that they will be able to speak with authority as to their ability to control and eradicate the disease in advance of the coming of frost.

Daily the system of inspection and report is becoming more perfect, and by that time not only will it be possible to tell precisely the extent of the fever, but a period will have arrived when no more new cases traceable to the original infection may be expected.

There was no accurate census of the population of what is known as the Italian district at the time of the fever outbreak, and in spite of the most painstaking efforts, it is still impossible to locate all who escaped from that zone when the result of the autopsical investigation became known. Ever since then Italians have been slipping out of the district after nightfall, but the number of escapes is becoming fewer and fewer and with increased vigilance in the course of the next day or two, the exodus will have been completely suppressed.

Infected District Isolated.

General communication with the district has stopped and only those expose themselves to infection whose business demands their presence where the fever has raged most fiercely. Within the next week, therefore, it is probable that the health authorities will be able to put their fingers on every man who has left the danger zone, and if there is then the same absence of spread from the outlying infection as has been shown heretofore, the authorities believe they will be able gradually to destroy each focus.

As a matter of fact, the foci are not actually as numerous now as they are represented to be in the daily reports. In a number of instances where the fever was reported to have appeared some time ago, the case has either been cured or died without further infection of the house or vicinity.

Many people are still leaving the city,

PROTEST AGAINST THE BILL

Making Dealing in Cotton Futures Unlawful in Georgia.

Augusta, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—A meeting was held today at the cotton exchange in this city, and a protest entered against the pending bill making dealing in futures unlawful in the state of Georgia. In addition to the cotton interests of the city, a number of merchants and others were present.

Resolutions condemning the bill as a stab at the cotton interests of the state and calling on the state solons to kill it was passed, and arrangements were made to send committees to Atlanta to oppose the measure. Petitions against the bill were also circulated and widely signed.

Steamer Rate War Ended.

Glasgow, July 31.—The Allan and Donaldson steamship lines, after a month of rate cutting, came to terms today with regard to second and third class transAtlantic passenger tickets. The second class rate was restored to $35, and the third class to $25.

Parisians To Visit London.

London, July 31.—The members of the Paris municipal government have accepted an invitation to visit London in October as guests of the London county council. During the visit they will hold a special business meeting.

TARIFF WAR MAY BE ENDED.

Russia Willing To Make Concessions Asked by America.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—Negotiations for the settlement of Russo-American tariff difficulties are advancing steadily. Russia is willing to withdraw the retaliatory duties on American machinery, etc., which weigh hard on Russian industry and agriculture and only seeks acknowledgment of the exceptional nature of the retaliatory duties imposed by her on American exports, which are not apt to become an important commercial factor.

Certificates of origin necessarily exacted on machinery imported from other countries is also a burdensome formality. The minister of finance hopes to be able to arrange a readjustment and to interchange notes on the matter without having recourse to a commission; and the wish is frankly expressed that a settlement might be arrived at in time to be announced during the peace negotiations.

The principal prospect of delay lies in the desire to submit the revision to M. Witte for his formal approval as a matter of courtesy, showing how strongly his political star is in the ascent in Russia today.

SURPRISE WEDDING AT MEET.

J. G. Rhea and Mrs. A. F. Woolsey United in Matrimony.

Woolsey, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—When the hour for adjournment of the general meeting of the Flint River Baptist Association had arrived Sunday afternoon, Rev. R. E. Smith announced that J. G. Rhea, of Griffin, and Mrs. A. F. Woolsey, of Woolsey, would be united in matrimony. They promptly presented themselves before him and were made man and wife.

The marriage ceremony was an interesting surprise of the meeting. Mr. Rhea is a prominent citizen of Griffin. He has been for years cashier of the City National bank in that place. Mrs. Rhea was the widow of the late Rev. I. G. Woolsey, for whom the town of Woolsey was named.

Large congregations attended the general meetings of the association. Rev. Mr. Camp, of Jonesboro, preached Saturday morning and Rev. R. F. Smith delivered a sermon at the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning. The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Edge, of Jonesboro.

Big Sugar Houses Break.

Paris, July 31.—Owing to the failure of a big speculator to meet engagements said to amount to $3,000,000, two of the leading sugar houses have suspended payments.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours, a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains the linen it is evidence of kidney that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, and a book that tells all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghampton, N. Y. When writing be sure to mention that you read this generous offer in the Atlanta Daily Constitution. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghampton, N. Y., on every bottle.

but it is difficult to separate those who are going away on their usual annual vacations from those who are seeking to get out of harm's way. Numbers of representatives of houses in other cities, printers, telegraphers, stenographers and clerks, who have not been here long enough to become acclimated have gone north. The great bulk of the city's population is still here, however, and apparently determined to stay until the mosquito theory is proved or frost comes.

No Harvest for Doctors.

It may seem an anomaly, but doctors are among those who are complaining of a reduction in their income. That is particularly the case among the higher class physicians and is explained by the fact that many of their rich patients have left the city. The epidemic does not profit the physicians, because it means much charity work.

The life insurance companies of the north and east are still doing business. They have kept in close touch with the situation, and so far as learned, none has advised its local representatives to cease writing. They will doubtless continue to do so unless the situation become much more serious. In 1897 some of the companies withdrew when the fever started. Though there were nearly 800 deaths that year, one of the largest companies in the east escaped with the payment of only two policies.

Three deaths occurred in the emergency hospital today, the number of patients in which has been largely increased. All cases found with no relatives to care for them are promptly removed to the institution, where the most elaborate modern arrangements have been made for their treatment.

In connection with the interview printed in the east with Health Officer Heller, of Philadelphia, Mayor Behrman, who wired him today, received a dispatch from Dr. Heller in which he said that he had received no dispatch from President Souchon, of the Louisiana board of health, and that a mistake had been made in the newspapers. The interview with Mr. Heller quoted Dr. Souchon as wiring that the fever this year was as bad, if not worse, than in 1878.

Sanitation Work Pushed.

The various citizens committees continued their work with great energy today. Reports received from the seventeen wards gave detailed figures of the number of premises visited, cisterns screened and oiled, cess pools oiled and patients found unattended by physicians. Chairman Janvier, of the general committee, expressed himself optimistically concerning the outlook. He said that the medical authorities had taken hold of the situation, and were handling it with great skill and intelligence, and it was the confident belief of the financial and commercial interests associated with him on the committee that the fight would be successful, and that it would be conclusively demonstrated that the stegomyia was the only agent of transmission.

President Souchon received advices today that the Wilmot case, at Morgan City, had been pronounced yellow fever. Morgan City is 80 miles from New Orleans, on the Southern Pacific railroad, and the effect of the announcement of the case there will doubtless be followed by the bottling up of the town. Meantime every precaution is being taken to prevent a spread of the infection. The state board of health is now in communication with every health board in the state, and has directed immediate telegraphic information of the discovery of even suspicious cases. No other case in Louisiana has been reported in the last two or three days.

It is generally believed here that when the present sickness passes New Orleans will not seek to regain the fruit trade, which has now been diverted to Mobile, unless the fruit companies are willing to submit to regulations which will make impossible the introduction of fever. It is almost universally the opinion that important as this trade has developed to be, it is not sufficiently profitable to the city to run again the risk of a recurrence of the present experience which, viewed from the most optimistic side, will ultimately cost many times the value of one season's fruit business.

It is also considered probable that the public sentiment in Alabama and Mississippi will require Mobile to take such precautions in the matter of detention, so that the fruit companies will eventually find themselves forced to submit to the same regulations in all the southern ports.

Regulations Were Too Lax.

The fact that the regulations here have not been sufficiently severe is shown by the fact that among the cases now under treatment is that of the engineer of the steamer Origen, who was stricken with fever last week. He had contracted the disease in Central America, but it did not become a fully developed case of yellow fever until after he had been removed to his residence.

The appearance of the present sickness is expected to retard the elaborate plans in process of formulation by the Crescent City Jockey Club for the construction of its track. The plans contemplated a thoroughly modern grand stand, and all the other accessories of a perfect plant, but architects and others who were due here to take up the work was reluctant to come at this time. It is not anticipated that the fever will cause any postponement of the opening of the regular winter racing season.

The health authorities here in lieu of using flags have decided to post small cards on houses where fever exists. The cards bear the information:

"This house has yellow fever."

The authorities, while giving daily the number of cases and deaths, and keeping a record of names and locations accessible to the public, have not desired to publish these reports. However, there has been some public demand for a designation of each focus, so that the people might generally be warned and take the usual precautions against exposing themselves unnecessarily to the infection.

That sanity in the country districts with respect to quarantines is not increasing is evidenced today by a dispatch from Port Gibson, Miss., on the Mississippi Valley road, which announces that the town council there today met in special session and passed a resolution excluding all freight from New Orleans. Other towns have taken similar action and business men here are apprehensive that the quarantine infection will spread and that there will be continued contraction of the districts into which New Orleans may sell its goods. Meanwhile the declaration of quarantine by the state of Louisiana against the city of New Orleans has opened practically the whole of the state to the commercial enterprise of Texas and other states which are expected to invade territory heretofore exclusively controlled by New Orleans merchants.

Can't Locate Detention Camp.

The marine hospital authorities have not yet been able to arrange for a detention hospital on the Louisville and Nashville at the Mississippi line. Since they were driven away from Waveland, the federal surgeons have been trying to locate camping stations, but movements in that direction have not been successful. In the meantime it is not at all certain that Louisianans caught by the quarantine and who went into the detention camps in order to get to their homes in the country will be out of trouble when their period of the detention is up.

Some of the parishes are reluctant to receive people from New Orleans even after they have undergone five days' medical scrutiny in a non-infected camp. The state board of health has its attention directed to this matter and will seek to overcome the difficulty.

The Era Club, composed of representative women, held a meeting today and tendered the services of its members to the health boards, city authorities and captains of the various ward organizations. Though generally people are willing to submit to the regulations of the health authorities, there are some who refuse to believe in the mosquito theory and who oppose the oiling of their cisterns and the cleaning of their premises. The Era Club members have volunteered to proselyte among this class of the community.

The mosquito ordinance will be passed at the meeting of the council tomorrow. It will require landlords to screen cisterns. Fine or imprisonment is the penalty for refusal to obey the ordinance. Very few houses in the city are without cisterns and 40,000 or 50,000 of them will have to be screened. The city is now spending some $10,000,000 upon a water and sewerage system, which when completed will require the abandonment of all cisterns. It will, however, be two or three years before this system is finished and in the interval the screening and oiling process will be essential if the breeding places of the fever-bearing mosquito are to be wiped out.

Members of Crew Held.

New York, July 31.—Five members of the crew of the French steamer El Sud from Galveston, were removed from the steamer at quarantine today, and taken to Hoffman's island for inspection. All had elevated temperatures. The El Sud was released as this precaution.

Arkansas Declares Quarantine.

Little Rock, Ark., July 31.—At a meeting of the Arkansas state board of health here today a quarantine against all districts where yellow fever prevails was declared. The board of health has upon several occasions asked the state legislature for an appropriation to be used in such emergencies as has now arisen, but their request has always been denied. Having no funds with which to enforce the quarantine the board of health has asked Governor Davis to assign as many members of the Arkansas state national guards as he sees fit to act as guards in making the quarantine effective. Governor Davis has as yet taken no action in the matter.

The annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Log Rolling Association of the Woodmen of the World, which was to have been held here August 13 and 14, has been called off. Delegates were expected from several states, some of which are in the infected district, and at the suggestion of the Little Rock board of health the meeting was abandoned. The cities of Pine Bluff, Helena, Texarkana and Arkansas City and the county of Chicot quarantined against the infected districts before the state board took action.

Plague Death at Panama.

Washington, July 31.—The Panama canal commission today received a cablegram from Governor Magoon reporting the death from yellow fever of Stelie Cortelyou, a typewriter from Muscotah, Kansas, who was employed in the auditing office at Panama. There was no additional cases and D. C. Lively, an American non-employe at Panama, has recovered.

Ban Put on All Ports.

Mobile, Ala., July 31.—Cuban Consul Dolz stated today that he had received no official information from the Cuban government in relation to press reports that his government had quarantined every gulf port from Tampa to the Sabine river in Texas.

Consul Dolz stated in connection with the report that it was true he thought that his government had sufficient reason for taking such action.

"As concerns Mobile," said he, "I informed my government several days ago that the health of this city was most excellent."

It was announced by officials of the Munson Steamship Company today that they had received information from their Havana agent to the effect that a quarantine had been established by Cuba today covering the territory mentioned above.

No Fever on Boat.

New York, July 31.—The liner Proteus arrived in quarantine at 5:45 o'clock this morning from New Orleans. A superficial examination bore out the captain's report that all on board are well. The steamer carried ninety-one cabin passengers and a crew of seventy-two men. Quarantine physicians went aboard about 7 o'clock and began a complete examination, which is expected to occupy about an hour.

Yellow Jack at Santiago.

Santiago, Cuba, July 31.—Five of the crew of the steamer Athenlana, from Colon, were brought ashore yesterday and placed in the inspection hospital. One of the sailors since has developed quite positive symptoms of yellow fever.

Fever Must Leave Isthmus.

Chicago, July 31.—John Barrett, minister to Panama until a month ago and now minister to Colombia, declared last night that the yellow fever will be driven out of the isthmus. He has arrived here en route to the Portland fair. From there he goes to his new post in Colombia. The fight against yellow fever is like a great battle, he said. Every effort is made to stamp out the disease. The people of the United States must not be impatient if the progress of the canal is slow. They must remember that the zone of operation is 2,000 miles away from the base of supplies.

Panic in Mississippi Towns.

Mobile, Ala., July 31.—The cities of Laurel and Hattiesburg, Miss., are now suffering with a well defined case of panic as evidenced by the latest instructions from officials of those towns to the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City. The road is notified that its trains must go through Laurel at the rate of 30 miles an hour, while Hattiesburg advises that no tickets must be sold to that point. The Gulf and Ship Island road has received similar advices.

Inspection at Anniston.

Anniston, Ala., July 31.—(Special.)—Headquarters for J. H. Achor, state quarantine officer, have been established at Anniston to work the Southern, Seaboard and Louisville and Nashville trains between this city and Atlanta, and between Wellington and Atlanta. The quarantine is against persons who have been in New Orleans or points along the gulf coast in Louisiana or Mississippi. Every person coming into the state is ordered to sign list of questions same as the query made on the western side of the state. Officer Achor has enough men here to have one on every train coming in the state and is keeping up a strict quarantine. The municipal authorities here declined to establish quarantine on account of the altitude of the city.

ler and Henry R. Winthrop being directors in both companies.

Bank Merger Arranged.

The complaint arraigns the merger in 1892 of the Western National Bank of the City of New York in which the Equitable Society was the owner of 12,000 shares, with the National Bank of the United States of New York, saying the Equitable could have obtained much more per share.

The salaries paid during the last five years to the principal officers of the society are declared excessive, and it is declared that many of the above named officers and directors and to others were given large and unwarranted sums as expenses without sufficient vouchers, etc. The defendants are alleged to have wrongfully caused the Equitable and other societies and corporations, in which the Equitable was a large stockholder, and defendants, directors and stockholders, to pay large sums of money to themselves, etc., under the guise of salaries and fees.

Allegation is made of the payment of "illegal and excessive pensions," and "excessive, improper and unwarranted sums to various attorneys and counsellors at law." Of the transactions of Jas. W. Alexander and Thomas D. Jordan with the Mercantile Trust Company, the complaint says:

"If defendant society became obligated to the Mercantile Trust Company to pay $685,000 said obligation was incurred for improper and illegal purposes."

"The defendants improperly, improvidently, and wastefully, procured and permitted the defendant society to loan $250,000 to the Depew Improvement Company, the property securing said loan being later bid in at foreclosure sale for about $50,000."

Charges Against Depew.

The complaint says Senator Depew and others violated an agreement made with the Equitable to save that society from loss if it would refrain from recording the deed for the property, and from enforcing a deficiency judgement; that the defendants permitted unnecessary and unwarranted deposits with the National Bank of Commerce, New York Mercantile Trust Company, New York, and at least twenty-one other banks and trust companies with which one or more Equitable officers were stockholders, directors, etc., at inadequate interest and deceived the policy holders as to the transactions.

The complaint also cites the Equitable Society's purchase of 10,536 shares of the Equitable Trust Company's stock at $500 per share, the actual value being $383.33, to show allotments made by the defendants to their own profit, the withholding of part of the surplus from the present policy holders is attacked.

Brave Women

Women's delicate nerve organism subjects them to so much suffering, that it is almost inconceivable how they manage to fulfill the various household and social duties, and yet they do—and suffer.

As a rule they understand the nature of their delicate organism, but overlook the wonderful influence their nervous system has upon their general health.

They are not sufficiently impressed with the fact that all their ills are directly traceable to the nervous system.

That their periodical sufferings and headaches are due to weakened nerves.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

has been wonderfully successful in revitalizing the nerves and curing all cases of nervous disorders and loss of vitality.

Thousands of delicate women have regained their health and vigor by its use, and the thoughtful fortify themselves by keeping their nervous system strong and vigorous by its use.

"From a thin, nervous wreck, miserable and wretched, I am now enjoying splendid health, and it is all traceable to your splendid medicine Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine."—MRS. MAUD B. OPLINGER, Philadelphia, Pa.

COTTON MEN ARE DIVIDED

to general esteem has arisen. The idea that Secretary Wilson should resign seems to emanate from a body of politicians rather than from the producers and their trade.

"Mr. Wilson has done us more good than any or all former secretaries put together. He has looked into cotton conditions at my own home, at Calvert, Texas, and found a state there typical of the whole south. The investigations which he inaugurated into boll weevil extermination and special culture methods have meant millions of bales of cotton to the south. He has the implicit confidence and gratitude of the farmers."

Thus it appears that there is to be strife within the rangs of the Southern Cotton Association if an attempt is made to have that organization officially request or demand the resignation of the secretary.

Cheatham Supports Jordan.

Secretary Cheatham seems to be standing squarely with President Jordan in the matter. He is in the city today, and in discussing the matter said, among other things:

"The present head of the department of agriculture has not been consistent in his efforts to bring about an investigation of the irregularities that have been in existence in the bureau for the past two years, and for that reason I understand from Mr. Jordan's statement, that the matter will be presented to the president officially and Secretary Wilson's resignation requested.

"Secretary Wilson," continued Mr. Cheatham, "in his eight and one-half years as secretary of agriculture, has been of great help to the cotton growers of the south, as through the valuable experiments in cotton production made by his department the staple product of the south has been increased many fold. Yet admitting all the good work he has done, the people want a man, as secretary of agriculture who can and will conduct his office for the interest of the people and who has backbone enough to come out flatly and declare to the public that he is running that department, and not depend upon subordinates.

"The people of the south are dependent upon cotton for a living, and if the board of trade sharks are constantly furnished with advance information as to the condition of the cotton crop then the people of the south are made victims of the fluctuation in the prices of their staple and are alone the ones to suffer from the acts of the unreliable and grafting employee who has been allowed to tamper with the information furnished by the department's correspondens."

Thus, while it is obvious that strenuous efforts to get Mr. Wilson out of the cabinet will be made, the outcome is altogether doubtful, as his friends are powerful and will make a most vigorous fight in his behalf. Furthermore, the committees on agriculture in both the senate and the house are favorable to him, and attempts to cut down any of the appropriations for the department will be actively opposed.

Secretary Cheatham expects to leave late tonight for Atlanta, where he will confer with President Jordan and presumably make plans for future action against the department.

A story printed here this afternoon is to the effect that Edwin S. Holmes has advised a local friend that he is not a fugitive from justice and that "he will return in good time to prove his entire innocence of any criminal charge."

Wilson Will Not Resign.

Oyster Bay, July 31.—Secretary Wilson will reorganize thoroughly the crop statistics bureau of the department of agriculture. Already he is seeking men of character, standing and education to conduct the work of the bureau, men in whom the farmers and growers of the country will have implicit confidence, and who will place the reports of the bureau on a standard of excellence never heretofore reached. He has found one man, although he does not at this time wish to publish his name. The other three he hopes to secure in a short time. Two of them will be southern men and both will be experts in cotton and tobacco statistics. This, in brief, is one of the ideas which Secretary Wilson elucidated to President Roosevelt today.

In response to invitations twice extended, Secretary Wilson visited the president this afternoon. After his visit he talked frankly about some phases of the work.

He said he had not been asked to resign, and did not intend to do so, adding:

"I am going to stick to my post and continue to build up that great department. You will recall that when I went there I found practically nothing but a few roll top desks and a half dozen half-starved scientists. The agricultural department today is a great department and sound as a nut. Since I took charge of it 279 people have been let out of its service for various reasons, many of them on charges. We make it a point to keep only first class men and women. The purpose of the investigations now in progress is to purge the department of all selfishness and corruption, and that end will be accomplished. It is my purpose, and it is the purpose of the president."

The secretary referred to the fact that Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Growers' association, is demanding his resignation; that Mr. Jordan's own people do not agree with him, he said, is evinced by a telegram just received from Vice President E. S. Peters, of the Southern Cotton Growers' association, which read:

"In reference to the interview of President Harvie Jordan, published this morning in The Washington Post, I would say that I cannot indorse the same. The farmers and cotton growers of the south have implicit confidence in your honesty and ability to purge the department of all grafters, and they hope the president will not interfere with the great work you are now doing for them."

The secretary also displayed another telegram from William Harvey, who, the secretary said, he understood was connected with the Merchant's Assosiation of New York, and read:

"Have sent the president a telegram so he will know how the great commercial bodies we represent feel about your department and work."

New Figures on Cotton Acreage.

"What about Mr. Jordan's statement that you did not collect new figures on the cotton acreage?"

"The reports which were received from the department's reporters in the field," he replied, "were placed in the hands of a board I appointed to make new estimates from them. That board's estimate differed from the estimate made by Hyde and Holmes by three and a half per cent. That it is correct, I believe, but if it is not, it is the fault of the field reporters, and not of the department. Hitherto, it is true, the figures probably have been juggled and changed, but we have eliminated practically any opportunity for any future jugglery of that sort. We probably never would have discovered what the difficulty was had it not been for the fact that two speculators got into a quarrel about a woman."

"Have you heard anything about Mr. Hyde?"

"Well, he has gone to Europe," replied the secretary grimly. "I had no idea he was going away from the country when he left the department. I received a letter from Mrs. Hyde explaining that she was responsible for his departure; that she had purchased herself his steamship transportation, and had insisted that he go away on account of his health. She said he was in danger of a nervous collapse."

The secretary said the case of Holmes and Dr. Moore are now before the department of justice. "Dr. Moore," he added, "had accomplished some fine results, and if he had only made clear to the department his entire connection with the Nitro-Culture Company I think we could have kept him on a straight course."

Makeshift Affair.

Secretary Wilson said the present crop statistics board is a sort of make-shift affair. The new board is to consist of four men, two of them from the south, the other two from other parts of the country. The secretary continued: "They will be the best men we can find in the country. Men of character, standing and education, experts in whom the country will have absolute confidence. All reports will be sent to me from the field and I will place them at the proper time in the hands of these scientists. Each will make up his estimate and the four estimates will be resolved either by me or by Assistant Secretary Hays. The board will be regular employees who will spend some of their time traveling for information. Through the work of this board I think we shall have perfectly reliable estimates made of all crop conditions."

Secretary Wilson has the approval of the president whose direction has been to eliminate every form of graft in the department.

Cholera in British India.

Madras, British India, July 31.—A serious epidemic of cholera prevails among the refugees from the famine stricken districts who have been crowding into the city for weeks past. Numbers of victims have been found dead or dying on the street. The death rate is 89.7 per thousand.

THEATERS.

Vaudeville was the attraction at the Casino last night, and the popular theater was crowded.

Nat Leroy and Minnie Woodford presented an act which received well merited applause, and was perhaps the most popular on the programme.

The creation of Lurline, the water queen, out of nothing, was another feature of the evening. The act puzzled the audience, and gave everybody something to think about and try to work out.

Nat Clifford, the English singer and comedian, did some fancy dancing which caught the eye of the crowd, and went far toward making his act a success.

The other acts were excellent, particularly the musical act and the acrobats who closed the performance.

Bishop Keiley Sees Pope.

Rome, July 31.—The pope today received in private audience and most cordially greeted Bishop Keiley, of Savannah, Ga., and Bishop Northrop, of Charleston, S. C., who arrived here Saturday with an American pilgrimage of one hundred persons.

The Modern Way to Sell Goods

Trade conditions are changing mightily from the old ways. It used to be that the retail salesman had to do a lot of introductory and educational work—had to spend much time showing various goods and explaining their merits. Now all this preliminary work is done before the customer goes to the store—done by advertising. Staples of high quality, as well as novelties, are advertised by name, brand or trade-mark, their uses and merits are made known through newspapers, and the consumer is thoroughly familiar with their value and desirability when the need for them arises.

And people buy the goods they know by name and reputation in preference to unknown, unadvertised articles. The dealer finds them easier to sell, therefore the jobber has a better demand for them. Thus the manufacturer who advertises his wares to the consumer creates a demand that the dealer and jobber must supply with his goods and no other.

The manufacturer who uses this method reaches the best consumers in each locality, reaches them when they have time to consider his claims for their patronage and reaches them through a medium that helps him with its own influence. The Massengale Advertising Agency, of Atlanta, Ga., can help any manufacturer in the preparation and placing of convincing advertising matter.

COTTON DROPS IN CONDITION

Decline of Over 5 Points as Compared With June.

Every State Shows a Marked Decline in Condition Except Georgia, Which Remains Unchanged, and South Carolina, Which Gains One Point.

New York, July 31.—(Special.)—The Journal of Commerce will tomorrow publish its August crop report, consolidating the returns of 1,325 special correspondents. It will show a condition of 79.4, against 81.2 for June, a decline of 5.8 points. This condition compares with 84 for the corresponding time last year, 77 in 1903, 80 in 1902. Deterioration is shown in all states except North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia.

Texas dropped 4.1 points to 72.9. Other large producing states showing declines as follows:

Alabama, 6.8 to 79.2; Mississippi, 4.0 to 72; Louisiana, 11.0 to 65, and Arkansas, 8.8 points to 67.2. Oklahoma shows a loss of 10 points to 72, the Indian Territory of 4 points to 77; Tennessee a loss of 13 points to 72; Mississippi a loss of 9 points to 87, and Florida a loss of 3 points to 87; Georgia remains unchanged at 84, and North Carolina at 85, while South Carolina is 1 point higher at 81.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE MEETS.

Money Pledged for Morris Brown College.

Cordele, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—The Macon district conference and Sunday school convention of the African Methodist Episcopal church is in session here, Rev. Dr. J. A. Lindsey presiding. The reports show great progress.

Several prominent colored men are visiting the sessions and delivering speeches and sermons. R. D. Stinson, of Morris Brown college, Atlanta, delivered an address Friday night to a crowded house. Among other things he said: "If 90 per cent of the youth of our race will accept an industrial education all will be well. We are badly in need of young people who can do skilled work and a lot of it." He spoke of the colored men employed in the lumber mills and other business enterprises throughout Georgia. Dr. Lindsay raised a good collection for the Atlanta school. Resolutions were offered requesting Bishop Turner to return the presiding elder over the Macon district the fifth year. The pastors and delegates pledged themselves to raise $1,000 general claim and $300 for Morris Brown college. The presiding elder spoke encouragingly of the three new churches now in course of erection, and the very substantial support rendered to him by the pastors.

May Use American Couplers.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—The government is instituting trials of American car couplers on the St. Petersburg and Moscow railroad. Director Notten, of the Moscow—Kazan line, who equipped a train of eight cars with these couplers is an enthusiastic advocate of their use; but the variety ohf te types of Russian cars and the vastness of an undertaking to convert all the rolling stock of the empire make any present application of the American system improbable.

FIRST MEETING AUGUST TWELFTH

Georgia State Chamber of Commerce Meets Then.

Savannah May Capture the Meeting of the Commercial Bodies of the State, as That City Has Invited the Body To Come There.

Constitution Bureau, 467 Second Street. Macon, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—August 12 has been suggested as the date set for the first meeting of the Georgia state chamber of commerce. Savannah has extended a formal invitation to all the cities and towns comprising the organization to hold this meeting in that city and this may result in a decision to go there. The formal invitation has reached President Arthur Dasher here and the other cities and towns are also looking towards that city.

President Dasher and Secretary Eugene Anderson have been very busy interesting smaller towns all over the state in a plan of organization for the purpose of presenting a solid front in the matter of fair freight rates. Replies have been encouraging and enthusiastic and there are indications that when the coming meeting is held many towns will poin sister cities in this new organization. Shippers and rate makers throughout the state and the section are watching with interest the steps that are being taken in the formation of the state chamber of commerce.

ZELLARS FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Well-Known Traveling Man Passes Away While at Moultrie.

Moultrie, Ga., July 31.—L. J. Zellars, a traveling salesman, was found dead in his room at the Hotel Colquitt this afternoon, and from appearances he died at an early hour last night. Zellars went to his room at 9 o'clock and afterwards called for water, stating to the bellboy that he felt unwell. He failed to come down to breakfast and was still absent at dinner, when the proprietor sent a boy to his room. He failed to respond to the call and the room was forcibly entered. The man was found dead face down on the bed, and apparently had died some time after retiring. His relatives at Palmetto have been notified, but nothing has been heard from them. The coroner's inquest found that his death was caused by congestion. Zellars was well known here and represented a Cincinnati leather house. The body has been turned over to Horn & Henderson, undertakers.

ROYAL ARCANUM TO GATHER.

Time and Place for Holding Session Not Determined.

Rome, N. Y., July 31.—Supreme Regent Howard C. Wiggins, of Rome, announced today that he has received a request from the constitutional number of supreme representatives requiring him to call a special session of the supreme council of the Royal Arcanum. There are seventy-seven representatives and requests have been received from thirty-nine, coming from ten grand jurisdictions, including Pennsylvania 7, Ohio 3, Indiana 2, Georgia 2, North Carolina 1, New Jersey 1 and Iowa 1.

The time and place of holding such special session will be announced as soon as suitable arrangements can be made therefor.

THREE NEGROES ARE MAROONED

On Uninhabited Island by Captain of Oyster Sloop.

According to the Story of One Who Escaped and Walked to Savannah — One of Party Said To Have Been Drowned.

Savannah, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—According to a story of Frank Houston, a negro, who walked all the way from Tybee Island on the railroad track to find a United States commissioner, he and two other negroes, Joe Hall and Robert Small, were left on the uninhabited island of Little Tybee last Saturday by Captain Dexter, of the oyster sloop Gladys, because they refused to work, and Small was drowned while the three were swimming across to Tybee.

The negroes had to wade in the marsh waist deep for a long distance, and then swam across the inlet which divides Tybee and Little Tybee in order to escape from the island.

Houston says they had been engaged to load one sloop, and because they refused to also load another the captain left them on the island. The commissioner is not in the city, and no action has been taken.

THE FARMERS SUMMER SCHOOL

Most Successful Sesion Being Held at Auburn.

Auburn, Ala., July 31.—(Special.)—The interest in the farmers' summer school continues to grow, the attendance on the fourth day reaching the large total of 179 farmers. The subjects of discussion seem to grow more and more practical and to awaken even a sharper interest with each lecture.

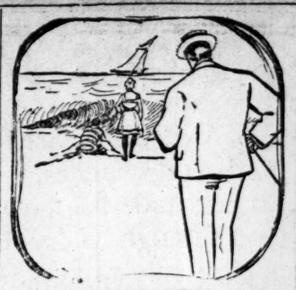

Representatives are present from every county, from the Tennessee line to Baldwin, on the gulf. The lectures by F. J. Merriam, editor of The Southern Ruralist, proved most instructive and valuable.

Of especial interest was a lecture on the judging of dairy cattle, given by N. C. Rew. He elaborated in detail the good points of the dairy cow, the time for breeding and the best methods for raising calves by hand. The questioning was brisk and the keenest interest was manifested. Joe Wing continued the discussion by a lecture on the principles of breeding.

A. Gaskell, one of the leading experts of the United States department of forestry, Washington, D. C., gave a most valuable address on forestry for farmers. He gave a solemn warning against the incalculable injuries to fertility, moisture, etc., caused by the wholesale destruction of the forests of the state. He pointed out the money value of the woods lot and larger tract of woodland. He spoke most interestingly, too, of the necessity of preserving the great Appalachian forests as the great reservoir of all southern rivers that water the fields, drive the factories and afford rain.

Natives Slain by Dutch.

Amsterdam, July 31.—The Dutch expedition sent against the rebellious native state of Boni, in the island of Celebes, one of the Sunday Islands, in the East Indies, inflicted a severe punishment on the natives, 260 of whom were killed. The fortifications of Badjoewa, one of the chief towns, were razed by the guns of the warships.

SHOT TO FRIGHTEN THIEVES.

E. A. Shields Fined $15.75 for Firing His Pistol at Two Negroes Thieves.

While trying to catch two negro thieves E. A. Shields, a grocer at the corner of Whitehall and Cooper street, fired a pistol Saturday afternoon in Kenney's alley, near South Pryor and Alabama streets, and was arrested by an officer on the charge of discharging firearms in the city.

Shields had chased two negroes who had stolen a box of cigars and a box of chewing gum and he overtook them at Kenney's alley. He called to an officer some distance away, and in the meantime he drew his pistol and fired a shot into the ground to frighten the fugitives and make them stop. The thieves got away and Shields was pulled.

In the recorder's court yesterday afternoon Shields stated his case and Recorder Broyles told him that he must not shoot pistols in the city just because a thief had robbed him. Shields was fined $15.75.

ONE IS CRUSHED, OTHER ROASTED

Two Lives Are Lost in Collision Near Bainbridge.

Freight Train and String of Backing Cars Collide, Killing Engineer Jones and Brakeman Underwood—No Cause Yet Known.

Bainbridge, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—A collision occurred here today at 11:30 o'clock on the Atlantic Coast Line on the high embankment approaching Flint river bridge, about a quarter of a mile west of the depot, between an extra freight train, going west, and the rear end of a string of cars being backed east by a switch engine.

Engineer C. P. Jones, of the freight train, was instantly killed, and Ed Underwood, colored brakeman of the freight train, was so badly hurt that he died a short time afterwards. No one else on either train was hurt. The fireman jumped in time to save his life.

It is impossible yet to determine the cause of the accident. The extra freight in charge of Engineer Jones and Conductor F. C. Mills, engine No. 708, had just passed the Bainbridge depot, and had been signaled ahead. It is down grade from the depot to the river bridge, which is about half a mile distant. The switching train was in charge of Engineer Dick Jones, who was coming up the grade towards the depot, backing a string of cars. As there is a curve at this point it is supposed that the engineer of the freight did not see the approaching cars until too late. The tank of the tender was loosened from its fastenings, and was hurled forward into the cab of the engine, pinning the two men against the front of the engine.

The engineer had reversed his lever, and evidently intended to jump, as he was grasping the hand rail of the cab when crushed and killed. The negro was caught about the middle of the cab, and jammed against the fire box. He lived for ten or fifteen minutes after the accident, and begged those who came to him to pull him out. His cries were piteous, as he was being crushed and roasted to death against the hot furnace, but no aid could be given him, and he quickly expired.

Engineer C. P. Jones was a resident of Montgomery, and leaves a wife and three children. Underwood, the dead brakeman, lived in Bainbridge.

RUCKER MAKES A NEW BOND.

Collector of Internal Revenue Will Probably Retain His Job Indefinitely.

For another four years, unless there is a removal for cause by the president of the United States, Henry A. Rucker, colored, will serve as collector of internal revenue in this, the Atlanta district.

Special agents of the national government have been examining the books, correspondence and records of Collector Rucker's office for the past week or ten days and tomorrow these agents will complete their work.

Less than a month ago Collector Rucker's attention was called to his bond covering his second term as internal revenue collector, which expires August 3, 1905. In the letter from the secretary of the treasury Collector Rucker was notified that a new bond would be required to substitute the one expiring in event he was not displaced by an appointment issued by the president. Collector Rucker forwarded to the treasury department several days ago a new guarantee covering his services as collector of internal revenue for a period of four years—from August 3, 1905, to August 3, 1909.

Collector Rucker since making his own bond has required from every one of his deputies a new bond and each of the deputies has perfected and submitted that bond.

The special agent who has made the examination naturally declines to indicate the nature of his report which he is now finishing.

But the fact that Rucker has made bond for another four years and the further fact that his deputies have done the same and the still further fact that the new bonds read for a period of four years from Thursday next, August 3, 1905, does not vouchsafe him a tenure of a third term. Within the next three days President Roosevelt may name a successor to Henry A. Rucker. In fact no appointment whatever has been made to the collectorship. The term of an internal revenue collector is four years, or "until his successor is appointed." A collector though appointed for four years may be removed at any time "for cause" and a successor must necessarily be named. But the bond a collector makes reads for four years and must be substituted at the end of that time whether or not a change is made. The fact that a new bond is requested is by no means a reappointment, neither is it an intimation that the one holding the office will be retained.

ALL BIDS ARE REJECTED.

Sums Offered for Lithia Springs and the Sweetwater Hotel Property Too Small.

All bids for the Lithia Springs and Sweetwater Hotel property were rejected yesterday by order of Judge J. T. Pendleton of Fulton superior court. The petition asking for permission to reject the bids was filed by Charles T. Hopkins for J. H. Nunnally, receiver for the estate of E. W. Marsh.

The receiver and the heirs agreed that the prices bid for the property were not large enough to justify a sale. The highest bid was $140,000.

The petition of Receiver Nunnally asking for authority to sell the property will be withdrawn.

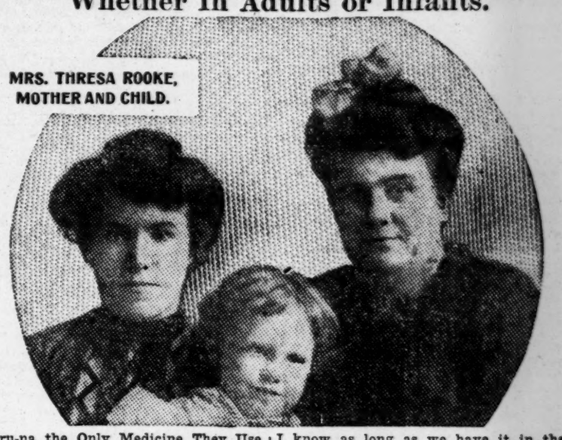

SAVANNAH DISLIKES MEASURE

Introduced by Representative Boykin Concerning Dealing in Cotton.

Savannah, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—A committee from the cotton exchange, Wright Hunter, Henry T. Williams and E. A. Cutts, left tonight for Atlanta to appear before the general judiciary committee of the house tomorrow to protest against the Boykin bill, which makes it unlawful to trade in futures of any kind.

THREE GENERATIONS PRAISE PE-RU-NA.

Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh In All Its Phases, Whether In Adults or Infants.

Pe-ru-na the Only Medicine They Use.

MRS. THRESA ROOKE, 258 N. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill., Treasurer Ladies of the Maccabees, writes:

"In our home Peruna is the only medicine we have. Grandmother, mother, father and child have all used Peruna. It is our great remedy for catarrh of the stomach and head, colds or female complaints of which it has cured me.

"We find it of great value when my husband becomes worn-out or catches cold. A couple of doses cure him. If the baby has colic or any stomach disorders, a dose or two cure her.

"I consider Peruna finer than any doctor's medicine I have ever tried and I know as long as we have it in the house we will all be able to keep in good health."

Mrs. Fredrich, of Central Park, L. I., Thinks Highly of Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. M. Fredrich, Central Park, L. I., N. Y., writes:

"I thank you for your kindness in answering my letters. I know your treatment has done me wonderful good.

"When I first commenced to take it I had catarrh of the throat and stomach. I think highly of Peruna and would not be without a bottle of it in the house.

"It is also good for breaking up colds, if taken in time. Even my little boy will ask for it when he has a cold. Wherever I can praise Peruna, I will do so."

POLICE ASKED TO FIND BURTON

Elderly Preacher Has Been Missing Since Last Friday.

The relatives and friends of Rev. J. C. Burton, of 381 East Fair street, are alarmed over his continued absence from home. The police have been asked to look for him, but so far no trace of him has been found.

Mr. Burton is about 60 years of age, and for some time his mind has not been exactly well balanced. On last Friday he left his home, presumably to take a short walk, and that is the last time he has been seen by his people.

It was thought at first that he might have gone to visit friends, but such has not been the case.

It is possible that he may have left the city, and that he will yet turn up all right. His relatives and friends are very much worried about his absence, and it is feared that he may have been injured in some way.

Mr. Burton is a Baptist minister, and at one time preached to a large congregation. His failing health caused him to discontinue active service.

MRS. LONGSTREET BREAKS ARM

While Out Riding Her Horse Slipped and Fell.

Gainesville, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Mrs. Ellen Dortch Longstreet, while out horseback riding, fell and broke her right arm, just above the elbow.

She was riding slowly along Race street, accompanied by Mrs. Downey and J. Henry Campbell, late in the afternoon. Mrs. Longstreet, being in advance, reined in her horse and took the side of the road. When her two companions came arbeast, she attempted to come abreast of them, and her mount slipping, she was thrown to the ground, her arm being bent under the animal's body. The accident occurred near the residence of W. I. Hobbs.

She was at once removed to the Cook hotel, where the wounded member was dressed by Dr. Downey. The wound is not giving her any trouble and is expected to heal in a few weeks.

WILL GO HOME WITH MOTHER

Girl Who Made Sensation Is Repentant Daughter.

Mrs. Lane, alias Mrs. Ray, alias Annie Belle Black, the young woman who did the lightning-change act and puzzled the police last week, and who was ordered to leave the city, was once more at the police barracks yesterday morning. This time she went there to meet her mother who had come to take her back home.

It is believed the last act, that of the repentent daughter, will prove to be the salvation of the woman or girl, for she is not more than 17 years of age, and that her awild and romantic career has happily ended.

All names were withheld at the police barracks and it is not yet known who the lightning-change artist really is, and she must still be known by her stage and road names.

The girl's mother read in the newspapers of her escapades and lost no time in getting to Atlanta. She came from some town in Alabama and not Texas. The girl had stated her home was in Texas. It seems that she had lived there with her grandparents and that her mother resided in Alabama.

When taken to the barracks yesterday the young woman said she was overjoyed to meet her mother. She threw her arms about the old woman's neck and cried as she kissed her again and again.

"Yes, my dear old mudder," she said, "I'll go back home with you and be a good, good little girl."

CHAMP ANDREWS RELEASED

Attorney and Dr. Harris Freed of Charge Against Them.

New York, July 31.—Champ S. Andrews, an attorney, and his client, Dr. John A. Harris, indicted together on a charge of extortion, were discharged today by Justice Olmstead in the court of special sessions.

The extortion charge was made by Mrs. Alice Strosnider, who said she made a restitution to Dr. Harris of about $10,000 in real estate in return for an equal amount of money which Dr. Harris claims he lost at a game of cards with the plaintiff's husband, John H. Strosnider.

SHORT ITEMS OF INTEREST

THE REPORT OF THE CLEARINGS by the Atlanta Clearing House Association for July shows an increase of more than $2,000,000 over the clearings of the same month last year. The report in full is as follows: July, 1905, $12,459,925.16; for July, 1904, $10,267,237.40; for the last day of the month in July this year, $513,878.93; for the same day last year, $447,856.64.

ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT legal sales of real estate to take place this morning (Tuesday), at 10:30 o'clock, before the court house, will be the sale by N. B. Corbin, trustee, of all the property in Atlanta belonging to the late Robert H. Plant, of Macon, Ga. The property consists of eleven lots on Capitol avenue and Crew streets, and is known as part of Marshall De Graffenreid subdivision on Washington Heights. The sale will be conducted by Walker Dunson and Dr. Henry L. Wilson.

JAMES C. ELLIOTT, AGED THREE months, son of Charles Elliott, died yesterday morning at the home of the family, 179 Haynes street. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the residence, and the interment will be in Westview. The death of the infant occurred only one month after the death of the mother.

MRS. LAURA ROBINSON, AGED 63 years, a widow, died about 6 o'clock last night at the residence, 303 West North avenue. She is survived by several children. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

FIVE DAMAGE SUITS AGAINST corporations, which had been recorded in the state courts, were transferred by certified copies issued by Clerk Broyles, of the Fulton county office, yesterday to the United States courts because the defendants are non-residents of the state.

L. M. KERNER, WHO HAS BEEN working for years with the Atlanta and West Point railway, is confined to his home on Fowler street with a broken leg. Mr. Kerner, in attempting to avoid a street car yesterday afternoon on Walton street, fell, and in falling the weight of his body came upon his right leg. A small bone snapped just above his ankle. He was sent to his home in a cab, and Dr. Hubbard rendered the necessary surgical attention. Mr. Kerner may be able to get about with the aid of crutches within the next week or ten days, but it will be quite a time before he can resume his work.

JOSHUA CURRY, OF KEY WEST, Fla., is in the city shaking hands with his many friends in this section. Mr. Curry, as proprietor of the Hotel Jefferson, at Key West, is widely known, and is always given a warm welcome wherever he "lights." He is the guest of Manager Zimmer at the Piedmont, and will be in Atlanta several days.

MRS. W. M. LEWIS, OF ATLANTA, and her sister, Mrs. Minnie Ring, also of Atlanta, are at Tallulah Falls, where they will remain for two or three weeks enjoying the balmy, cool atmosphere of that mountain region.

Army Oficer Injured.

Norfolk, July 31.—Dexter Tiffany, Jr., a paymaster in the United States navy, stationed at the navy yard here in charge of auxiliary accounts, was thrown from a runabout this evening and sustained a very serious fracture of the skull. He was driving a horse that was frightened by a trolley car and ran away. Mr. Tiffany's head struck the asphalt and he was taken to the Sarah Leigh Memorial hospital in an unconscious condition, being later carried to the naval hospital for an operation. Tiffany is a Missourian.

Augusta's First Bale.

Augusta, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Augusta received her first bale of cotton today. It was shipped from Hattiesville, S. C., by express, and arrived on the first passenger train of the day. It was consigned to Messrs. Davidson & Fargo. The bale weighs 468 pounds. The shipper and raiser was Idis Brabham, of Hattiesville.

DISCUSS LIQUOR FROM PULPIT

South Carolina Dispensary System Aired in Church.

Ex-Congressman Talbert Says a Certain Brand of South Carolina Booze Juice Would Make a Rabbit Whip a Bulldog.

Columbia, S. C., July 31.—(Special.)—Probably the most unique airing of the dispensary question ever had in South Carolina occurred in the historic Red Hill Baptist church, at Parksville. From the pulpit of this edifice former Congressman W. Jasper Talbert and ex-Solicitor J. W. Thurmond locked horns on the liquor traffic. The occasion was a union meeting of Baptists and Colonel Talbert, among others, was on the programme to discuss "Is it an opportune time for the Christians of South Carolina to make a decided stand against strong drink as a beverage?" Colonel Talbert denounced the dispensary system in its entirety, while Mr. Thurmond defended the institution.

The assembly was large and the speakers stood in the pulpit. At the close of Colonel Talbert's remarks Mr. Thurmond, who was among the auditors, advanced and delivered a very earnest speech, advocating the dispensary. He declared that if it was rightly conducted it was the best soolution of the liquor question and that there would be open barrooms in South Carolina within two years if the prohibitionists should win their fight.

Four Degrees of Drinking.

In his address Colonel Talbert declared that the welfare of the nation depended more largely upon the character of its citizens than upon the strength of its army and navy; that total abstinence is the only logical and safe practice for a religious man. Some men, said the speaker, remain moderate drinkers without ruin, but their example is deleterious to others who are not strong enough to keep from excess. He characterized whisky drinking as having four degrees—the sheep, monkey, lion and hog degrees.

Colonel Talbert declared the "Fust X" whisky freely imbibed would kill a man a hundred yards off behind a tree, and gave the test of a citizen for the "Fust X." It was to give it freely to a rabbut; put the rabbit in a pen with a bull dog, and if the rabbit does not whip the bull dog, it is not chemically pure "Fust X."

In his speech Mr. Thurmond said he recognized the great evils of whisky, but that men might honestly differ as to the best means of reducing the evil.

"Does the present mode of selling liquor produce more evil than other ways?" he asked. "Some evils must be prohibited outright; others are best prohibited by controlling them. This is the case with whiskey.

"Prohibition in Edgefield county formerly was a complete failure. One of the worst things a state can do is to put a law on the statute books which cannot be enforced; and the prohibition of liquor cannot be enforced; you teach people perjury by bringing them up before grand jurors under circumstances which experience has shown will make them lie.

Present Law Good Solution.

"If you will take your present law and enforce it, it will be a good solution of the question. If you vote prohibition you will have it but a year or two. The leaders of this anti-dispensary movement in Columbia are working toward high license, and prohibition is but a step on their way to that end."

Colonel Talbert asked the speaker if it was possible for the legislature to vote for barrooms, and he unqualifiedly affirmed that it could do so.

Colonel Talbert—"Do you believe that it will do it?"

Mr. Thurmond—"I believe they will do it in two years' time."

Colonel Talbert—"Then, God have mercy upon their souls."

At the recent meeting of the district conference of the Methodist church, held at Hickory Grove, York county, resolutions were passed by that body upon the growing sentiment against the dispensary and declaring that the church could support no system which advocated the sale of liquor.

NUMBERS HEAR DR. TRACY.

Evangelist Has Fine Attendance at His Tent Meeting.

Dr. N. W. Tracy, the evangelist, is still drawing great crowds since leaving the Grand opera house and putting up his tent on the vacant lot just south of the Jewish temple on Pryor street. On Sunday evening there were between 1,500 and 1,600 persons in attendance at the meeting and last night the tent was full.

Dr. Tracy on Sunday evening occupied Dr. Broughton's pulpit and the services at his tent were conducted by Rev. Floyd F. Dawson, his associate. A number of the churches in the southern section of the city held no services on that evening on account of the tent meeting, Mr. Dawson's theme was "Pilgrim's Progress."

Last evening Dr. Tracy preached on the subject, "Wine and Women." His lectures are all illustrated by steeoptican views and those who hear him once rarely fail to go again. He was invited to Georgia by the State Anti-Saloon League, of which Judge W. R. Hammond, of Atlanta, is president. Dr. Tracy is so pleased with Georgia that he contemplates bringing his family here from Philadelphia and remaining some time in the city.

KILLED HIS BROTHER IN LAW.

Grisham Shot and Killed Charles Thornton Yesterday.

Athens, Ala., July 31.—Jap Grisham a young married man, shot and killed his brother in law, Charles Thornton, this morning just across the line in Lauderdale county. The trouble seems to have been brewing for several days. Grisham recently ran away with and married the 14-year-old sister of Thornton. Grisham fled after the tragedy. All the persons concerned are prominently connected in the community.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Very naturally the chief topic of interest in railroad circles these days is the yellow fever in New Orleans, together with the resulting restrictions in the city and in other places in the south. Telephone communication between railroad officials in the Louisiana metropolis and Atlanta are of daily occurrence. While the officials of New Orleans appreciate the gravity of existing conditions at present, they seem confident that the malady is under control, thanks both to advances made on the part of the medical profession and better existing conditions than in former years.

According to the New Orleans officials there seems to be confidence on the part of the people that the fever will be held in its present isolated district, and any far-spreading epidemic averted. They report that absolutely every known precaution is being taken and every opportunity for bettering conditions improved. They insist that the excitement on the part of the public is among the people who live many miles outside of New Orleans, while those who live in the city are by a very great majority attending to their regular duties with little or no change from the usual routine.

Atlanta officials insist that the importance of this confidence cannot be estimated. They are enthusiastic, too, over the measures taken in punishing those responsible for spreading rumors of yellow fever cases in cities and states where no such case of fever exists. Gossip in a general way is always credited with terrible results in the ruining of characters, but when it comes to rumors which mean terrible disaster for communities and commonwealths, these rumors are traced to their careless source and the gossips severely punished.

Lee Edwards, for a long time in General Agent Thompson's office, of the Southern railway, Sundayed in Atlanta with his very many friends and admirers. When Chief Clerk Duncan relieved Mr. Edwards in order that he might go to Cuba as general agent of the Southern, it was expected that Mr. Edwards would do much for the southern mills. While Mr. Edwards did make a big advance in this direction, in a very few months another promotion carried him to the offices of Third Vice President Culp at Washington as chief clerk.

Mr. Edwards while still a young man, has through hard work and natural ability promised much for the future in the minds of his many friends, and his rapid promotion has only tended toward the certain proof of this confidence. Like all Atlantans, while true to the city in which he lives, he has always remained loyal to the great railroad center of the south. In this way so many have migrated from this city to Southern railway headquarters that Washington is often referred to as an Atlanta suburb, a reference which many of the Washingtonians claim they are proud to admit.

Robert Russell, T. P. A., of the Rock Island interests at Chattanooga, will return to Atlanta, his old home, according to the report of his friends.

R. L. Anderson, representing a syndicate of merchants in Soo Chow, China, for the purpose of establishing trade direct between China and the southern mills, has been meeting many of the railroad men. All of the local officials have proved their interest in this work, and Mr. Anderson, having been put up at the Transportation Club, has won many friends in the old railroad family of President John Ward.

Now that the picnic season is entirely over, many passenger officials claim that the business for 1905 shows a very considerable increase over last and preceding years.

A new time table booklet with complete information regarding all arrivals and departures of trains in the new depot has just been issued. This booklet is one of the most convenient and complete tables issued for the purpose of telling just what you want to know and no more.

Another old Atlantan, C. A. Forrest, is getting the glad hand from his old friends. Mr. Forrest comes back from Oklahoma City as Rock Island representative.

General Freight Agent Browder, of the Southern railway, made an extended business trip before returning from the joint meeting of the Southeastern and Mississippi Valley Freight associations at Atlantic City. While there was much in the way of hard work of a routine kind during the four days' sessions, the Atlanta contingent, including Chairman Hinton, Secretary McGill and his associates, Chief Clerk Freer and his family of the Southeastern association, found time for "boardwalking, which resulted in meeting many Atlantans who are summering at this famous resort.

First Bale Brings 20 Cents.

Americus, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Americus received this afternoon two cotton bales of the new crop. The first bale was bought by D. B. Culpepper and was sold at L. G. Council's ware house to Clarence J. W. White at 20 cents. The second bale was received two hours later. This was brought by Cliff C. Carter to Oliver's ware house, but too late for sale this evening. Many other new bales will be received during this week, as cotton is opening rapidly on all plantation here.

MILL MEN MEET HERE WEDNESDAY

Will Take Steps to Pacify Chinese Merchants' Guilds.

Roy S. Anderson, Representing the Guild of Soo Chow, Will Be Present and Will Give the Benefit of His Knowledge of China.

For the purpose of considering the action of Chinese merchants' guilds in boycotting American manufactured cotton products, and to hear from Roy S. Anderson, who represents the Chinese Merchants' guild in Soo Chow, with reference to pacifying the merchants of China, a meeting has been called by President Robert F. Maddox, of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, for 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at city hall.

Directors of the chamber of commerce and leading cotton mill men in this section of the country have been invited to be present and participate both in the discussion and in the action of the meeting.

It is not known what will be the result of the meeting tomorrow afternoon, but Mr. Anderson's idea is that the leading merchants and business men of the south should send a commission to China, for the purpose of assuring the merchants of that country of the friendship of the people of the United States, and of the efforts that are now being made to end the objectionable practices that exist under the present Chinese exclusion act.

Mr. Anderson has held several conferences with President Maddox and Secretary Walter G. Cooper, of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, and as a result the call for the meeting has been issued.

Mr. Anderson came to America at the request of the Chinese Merchants' Guild of Soo Chow, one of the most influential of the organizations of the empire. He came for the purpose of studying trade and to investigate the conditions in the south with especial reference to the manufacture of cotton goods.

The Chinese guilds are very important and influential bodies and not only absolutely control the cottton trade of their empire, but cooperate with the government and have their influence upon many governmental acts. It would seem therefore that one very effective method of reestablishing friendly trade relations between American manufacturers of cotton gods and the Chinese people is to assure the members of the guilds of the desire of the people of this section to have stopped the objectionable practices that obtain at present under the exclusion act.

Giant Strike Threatened.

London, July 31.—The Lancashire cotton operatives have decided by an enormous majority to strike on August 19 unless the advance in wages demanded by them is conceded. During the past week a ballot on the question of striking has been taken among the 60,000 operatives. The demand is for 5 per cent advance in wages.

COLUMBUS BOY DIES IN RIVER

Arthur Stewart Drowns While Swimming Near Mott's Green.

Columbus, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Arthur Stewart, aged 18 years, a son of T. C. Stewart, was drowned this afternoon in the Chattahoochee river at Mott's Green. He was in swimming with two companions and got beyond his depth. The body has been recovered.

MORTUARY.

Edward Lyman Short, New York.

New York, July 31.—Edward Lyman Short, general solicitor of the Mutual Life Insurance Company since 1895, died yesterday at his home in this city from heart failure. Mr. Short was widely known in the legal world as a specialist in railway litigation, insurance law, taxation and corporation law, and was the author of numerous pamphlets on these subjects.

Colonel L. Houston Scruggs.

Huntsville, Ala., July 31.—(Special.)—Colonel L. Houston Scruggs, who died in Nashville Saturday, was intimately identified with Huntsville business interests for many years, and news of his death was received here with much regret. Colonel Scruggs commanded the Fourth Alabama infantry, in which a large number of northern Alabama veterans saw service. Colonel Scruggs was a brother of Miss Ella Scruggs, Mrs. Otey Robinson and J. W. Scruggs, of this city.

Mrs. Isabella Fargo, Augusta, Ga.

Augusta, July 31.—(Special.)—Mrs. Isabella S. Fargo, one of the most prominent women of the city, died last night. She is survived by the following children, all prominent in the business and social world of Augusta: Mr. George F. Fargo, Mr. C. T. Fargo and Mrs. George Lamback, the wife of the councilman from the first ward. The funeral occurs tomorrow morning from the First Presbyterian church.

EUSTIS KALE DISAPPEARED

And His Family Is Uneasy, Suspecting Foul Play.

Fincastle, Va., July 31.—Eustis V. Kale, who was chief clerk in the Kanawha Banking & Trust Company, of Charleston, W. Va., who was spending a vacation with his family at Fincastle, left there July 9 to attend the Elks' convention at Buffalo, and was to return to Fincastle shortly. He has not been heard from since, and his family have no trace of him. Foud play is suspected. The Buffalo authorities have been communicated with.

NEW POINTS ARE NOT COVERED

So Far as the Proclamation of Governor Jelks Goes.

Montgomery, Ala., July 31.—(Special.)—Though the state board of health has announced that the quarantine has been extended to all points in Louisiana and that part of the coast from New Orleans to the Alabama line, there is nothing known of it at the office of the governor, and the executive has not extended his proclamation to cover points other than those indicated up to today. No request has been made by the board of health to take in this.

Death of a Child.

Joseph B. Denny, aged two years, son of T. H. Denny, died about 8 o'clock last night at the residence of the family, 40 1-2 Alice street. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

TO TAKE ACTION ON QUARANTINE

Meeting of Columbus Board of Health Called for Today.

Columbus, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—A meeting of the Columbus board of health has been called for tomorrow to take action upon the yellow fever situation and decide whether or not Columbus should quarantine.

Drought Broken.

Columbus, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—The drought that has prevailed for the past several weeks in Muscogee county was broken yesterday afternoon. Good rains fell all along the route of the Central of Georgia railway from Columbus to Upatoie. A nice rain is also reported along the Southern railway from here to Midland.

Some nice crops are reported in Muscogee county this year. As an instance, W. T. Nuckolls, who lives on the Glade road, 6 miles from the city, will make 300 bales of cotton and 5,000 bushels of corn on a ten-mule farm this year. James A. Lewis, a well-known farmer of the county, probably holds the watermelon record this year. On a quarter of an acre he has raised 400 watermelons, ranging in size from 40 to 70 pounds. The melons were retailed at 20 and 25 cents.

Mr. Lott's Funeral.

Columbus, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Lott took place this morning from her late residence, and was largely attended.

Declines the Call.

Columbus, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Rev. W. E. Phifer, pastor of the Rose Hill Presbyterian church, has declined a flattering call to the Brookhaven, Miss., Presbyterian church. Rev. Mr. Phifer has been in Columbus several years, and has endeared himself to the people.

Cataula Camp Meeting.

Columbus, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—The annual Cataula camp meeting will begin Friday, August 11, and will last through the following Wednesday. Rev. J. O. A. Cook, presiding elder of the Columbus district of the Methodist church, will preside. The Methodist ministers in Columbus and vicinity will assist in the meeting.

Mercer Scholarship Matter.

Macon, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—One of the first matters of interest to Macon and Mercer university to be handled when the new president of that institution takes charge this week will be the twelve scholarships, formerly given to the city by Mercer and which were withdrawn over a year ago at the suggestion of Acting President Kilpatrick.

Mayor Smith and President Smith will go over the records and the matter will be fully discussed. Both men are anxious that the fight, which has been kept up so long, cease, and the probability is that the matter will be amicably adjusted. Dr. Smith is eager for the strong support of the mayor and council in his efforts to put Mercer's interests to the forefront, and Mayor Smith and several aldermen are strongly in favor of an agreement which will help the institution. Friends of both the city officials and the institution want the scholarships to remain at the disposal of the city and this is almost sure to be the result of a consultation now in progress.

SMITH DECLINED TO JOIN CLUB

Which Certain T. P. A.'s Proposed to Form for Hoke Smith.

Augusta, Ga., July 31—(Special.)—President Harry D. Calhoun, of the Travelers' Protective association, announced that so far as he is concerned the controversy over the effort of several Atlantas to use the organization in the interests of Hoke Smith is at an end. He declares he has acted properly in the matter and to prove that he is not alone in his opinion he gives out two letters he received from former State Senator J. Rice Smith, ex-president of the Travelers' Protective association, which show that Mr. Calhoun is not the only prominent Travelers' Protective association who objected to he Hoke Smith club planned by the Atlanta members of the Travelers' Protective association. Mr. Smith's letters follow:

"Richmond, Va., July 6. Mr. Harry D. Calhoun, president, Augusta, Ga. Dear Harry: I find upon my desk here a letter from a committee requesting me to join the traveling men's Hoke Smith club of Georgia. I hope you, as president of the Georgia division, will take a very pronounced position on this question and prevent the injustice that is thereby attempted to T. P. Asm. in the state of Georgia. I know that you are manly and able, and will do what you can at once to correct it. With my best wishes, and promising you any assistance I can render, I am, yours very truly, J. RICE SMITH."

Accompanying this letter is a copy of another from Mr. Smith, sent to J. H. Andrews, as follows:

Second Letter.

"Richmond, Va., July 6, 1905. Mr. J. H. Andrews, State Secretary, Atlanta, Go. Dear Sir: I have received here forwarded from Augusta, Ga., a letter signed by yourself, W. W. Hyatt and W. P. Anderson, dated Atlanta, June 28, requesting me to enroll my name as a member of the Traveling Men's Hoke Smith Club of Georgia. This I positively decline to do and would decline the same proposition for any other candidate running for that position. I do not believe nor do I consent that any member of our organization has a right to use it for political purposes. It is a great mistake and is going to result in the division of an organization that only has for its purpose the advancement of commerce and the protection of its members. To associate it with any political movement simply means its division and possibly final detruction.

"I trust you gentlemen will carefully consider this matter and withdraw the proposition at once, I believe that you are deeply interested in the future prosperity of our organization, as I am, and I can only think that this has been an impulse on your part without fully weighing the results that might obtain detrimental to the interests of the organization.

"As an individual I shall enlist in the support of such man as I deem proper, and best for the office of governor, but as a T. P. A. I shall have nothing whatever to do with it. I trust, gentlemen, with all kindness, that you will remove this wrong by recalling every application of this character that you have sent out, as the removal of state headquarters to Atlanta, in which I was mainly instrumental, was not intended to have the Travelers' Protective association organization of the state of Georgia used either for or prostituted to political purposes. Yours truly and fraternally,

"J. RICE SMITH,

"Ex-President Georgia Division, Travelers' Protective Association."

Stockholders in Alaska.

Macon, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Eleven of the stockholders of the Eagle River Mining Company are now in Alaska looking after their interests in one of the best paying enterprises known in Macon. These are Messrs. Moore, Ed and Frank Mallary, Stubb, Taylor, Lewis and Jelks. Several are accompanied by their wives and the summer is being spent at the mines. Since this mining company was organized not a single share of the stock has ever been put on the market and letters coming from those who are now prospectors in the far north contain glowing reports of the wealth in the mines.

Testimony in Ross Case.

Macon, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Sheriff Robertson, who has been closely engaged in investigating the cause of the death of Henry Ross, who was found in a dying condition under a trestle on the Georgia road near Milledgeville Thursday last, stated today that at the commitment trial of Green and Snow tomorrow at Milledgeville testimony would be heard from a man who saw the accused prisoners push Ross from the excursion train.

Many witnesses have been summoned to attend the trial and Macon citizens, as well as those who were acquainted with the tragedy in Milledgeville, are greatly interested in the outcome. The fact that Ross was drinking when he left Macon is said to be pretty generally known, and the other two men are also said to have been under the influence of liquor. They were Ross' companions until the accident occurred, according to the statements of excursionists who went from Ma...

Col. Livingston's Prophecy.

The announcement in our Washington dispatches that Congressman Livingston is to lead the fight in the house for the purification of the department of agriculture will hardly be news to the people of Georgia who are familiar with the part Colonel Livingston took in airing the question of cotton reports in the last congress.

Always most active when anything affecting the interests of the farmers is before congress for its consideration, Colonel Livingston, it will be recalled, made a strong fight to secure an investigation of the statistics bureau when the last agricultural appropriations bill was before the house. This was immediately after the bureau's estimate upon cotton which caused such a sensation at the south.

Colonel Livingston, in his speech in support of his provision for an investigation, strongly intimated that there prevailed in the department of agriculture exactly that situation since developed. His proposition for an investigation failed through the influence of leading members of the agricultural committee, who, doubtless in all honesty, had faith in Mr. Hyde and his subordinates and in the theory upon which the gathering of statistics was conducted.

Since it has been demonstrated that however good the theory might have been, the practical workings of the bureau were tinctured with fraud, his associates in congress will doubtless give Colonel Livingston full credit for his demonstrated superiority of judgment. He told them then that while the advices which had reached him could not be taken as conclusive evidence of rottenness, an investigation under congressional auspices would, he felt sure, lead to important disclosures.

In the light of the afterdevelopments, this prediction has proven prophecy. Those who doubted will now doff their hats to the superior judgment of the congressman from the fifth Georgia.

Save the Farmers' Institutes.

In his communication published in Sunday's Constitution, Mr. G. F. Hunnicutt, editor of The Southern Cultivator, raises a timely voice in behalf of the appropriation for the support of the farmers' institutes, which have for several years been held throughout the state.

It is sincerely to be hoped the legislature will rally to the support of the institutes, making the necessary appropriation for their continuance. As Mr. Hunnicutt suggests, it would be far better to increase the appropriation to $5,000 annually rather than to abandon the institutes.

The fact that the appropriations committee of the house has failed to recommend the appropriation need not give the friends of this movement any fear that the legislature will permit the abolition of the institutes. In previous legislatures the appropriation has failed to carry in the house, but has been saved by the senate. Instead, however, of relying solely upon the senate this year, the friends of the institutes—and they are very many in the house—would be wise to see that the item is inserted in the appropriations bill now, when that measure is up for consideration.

These farmers' institutes, held under the auspices of the university, have proven an excellent means of carrying practical agricultural education on a broad scale to the farmers of the different parts of the state; and innasmuch as the farmers constitute the backbone of the state's progress and prosperity, this education is of great value, direct or indirect, to all interests in Georgia.

The appropriation should not be considered as a special favor to the agricultural classes, but an excellent investment for the state—as it certainly is that.

Japanese Peace Terms.

The well known and authoritative writer on Far Eastern topics, Thomas F. Millard, has an interesting and exceedingly timely article in the current Scribner on "The Fruits of Japan's Victory."

From what this writer could gather at Tokio, the Japanese peace terms offered at Portsmouth will be substantially as follows:

(a) The permanent evacuation by Russia of Port Arthur and all of Manchuria.

(b) The turning over to Japanese control, for a term of years, of all the Russian railway lines lying east of the western border between Maunchuria and Siberia.

(c) Cession to Japan of the island of Sakhalin and its archipelago.

(d) The turning over to Japan for a term of years of the port and littoral of Vladisvostok, as a guarantee of good faith and an agreement on the part of Russia to not again fortify Vladivostok.

(e) Russia to agree to not in the future increase her naval force in Pacific waters above a maximum fixed by the peace terms without the consent of Japan.

(f) The Amur river to be freely navigated by the craft of all nations.

(g) Russia to pay Japan a money indemnity.

(h) Russia to recognize the preponderating interests of Japan in Korea and Manchuria.

These terms may be modified in some minor particulars, as has been suggested in dispatches from Washington—[tha]t in addition to demand[ing an inde]mnity of practically a bil[lion] [...] Japan will demand the [...] [...] Tung peninsula and of the [...] far as Harbin; t[...]

recognition of Japanese predominating influence in Korea and the return of Manchuria to China.

Japan could not be expected to demand less, and it will be no surprise to the world if she demands considerably more. She will probably be farsighted enough to shut Russia entirely out of the Siberian littoral, so far as naval and military bases are concerned, for the paw of the bear must be withdrawn from the Pacific entirely to insure the future integrity of Japan.

There really is little to haggle over in the Manchurian programme of Japan. Russia will have to get out of the province, bag and baggage. But the question of the cession of Russian territory to Japan will not be so easily surmounted. Unless this disputed Siberian territory is in the actual possession of the Japanese, the Russians will balk stubbornly on the Siberian part of the Japanese programme, and the Japs seem to be in a good way to forestall all that by capturing the disputed territory. This is the significance of the advance against Vladivostok and the capture of the island of Sakhalin.

Should Accept the Trust.

The Ladies' Memorial Association of Marietta has tendered to the state the confederate cemetery at that place, which for years these ladies have struggled to properly care for.

The work done by this association is a noble one. These noble women took charge of the cemetery which had lapsed into a condition of neglect, and while with the aid of their best efforts this confederate cemetery cannot even now compare in beauty with the national cemetery near by, it is still no longer the reproach it once was.

In this confederate cemetery at Marietta there are at least three thousand graves, perhaps more. With the ladies who have worked so nobly in the cause of protecting this hallowed ground from final decay it has been a labor of love, but many of them—now themselves "nearing the sunset," as one of them put it—fear that in the course of time if left to the care of private individuals the cemetery might fall again into neglect. In order to guard against this possibility, they have proposed to turn it over to the state.

The trust is one which should be promptly accepted by the people of Georgia. While the state is doing everything in its power to protect the living, the graves of the hero dead should not be forgotten, nor should they be permitted to lapse into a state of neglect.

It is sincerely to be hoped the necessary steps toward accepting this trust will be taken without delay.

Governor Hoch's Hot Biscuits.

Hot biscuits from the kitchen of the governor's mansion at Topeka are playing an important part in a discussion involving all Kansas these days.

Are the governor of Kansas and his next door neighbor exchanging hot biscuits?

Judging by the newspaper dispatches from Kansas there is a general feeling in that state that certain of Governor Hoch's chickens are coming home to roost—and that they are not altogether welcome. Last winter, when Booker T. Washington visited Topeka, the governor—who is, of course, a republican—walked arm in arm with Washington to the hall of the house of representatives and introduced him to the legislature as "one of the greatest men of the times." Later the governor appeared at the Kansas Day Club banquet, where he sat beside, and dined with, W. T. Vernon, a negro orator.

Now, there is a good deal of human nature in Kansas, even if, these days, practically every Kansan is a republican. Although the Kansas Day Club is a republican organization, a number of the party leaders refused to participate in that banquet because its officers had invited the negro Vernon to make the principal speech.

And so it happens that his fellow citizens, or a large number of them, are disposed to think that Governor Hoch is getting his just deserts now that Nick Chiles, the leading negro editor of Kansas, has bought a home next to the executive mansion. Chiles boasts that he and the governor are warm friends and says, "the governor and I will frequently exchange hot biscuits."

Strangely enough, a large number of Kansans are resenting the idea that a negro should live next to the governor's residence, and in discussing it are using such strong words as "outrage;" at the same time there is a strong disposition to feel that the governor deserves no sympathy, his political catering to the negro being responsible for the unpleasant proximity into which he has been brought with this next door neighbor. One of these, a prominent republican, has written the governor in [th]is wise:

"Being one of your ardent admirers before you became governor and having voted for you, I feel a kind of personal interest in you. For that reason I desire to offer congratulations on your acquisition of a new neighbor, Nick Chiles. I am sure you will warm up to him and his even more than you did to the negro Vernon and to that other distinguished 'colored gentleman,' Booker T. Washington. You have another opportunity to show your broad-mindedness in setting a noble example by mixing and mingling with the negroes. If in so doing you fail to elevate the negro, you may in a measure succeed in lowering the white man to his level, which will please the black voter just as well."

All of which strengthens our belief that there is much human nature in Kansas.

Let Him Rest.

I.

When a fellow does his best,
Being weary, let him rest!
'Tis his right to leave the fight—
Fold the banners with the Night,
And to sleep—the battle o'er—
Where the battle breaks no more.

II.

When a fellow does his best,
'Neath the still stars let him rest;
In some silent, shadowed place,
Let the daisies hide his face
'Neath the brooding wings of peace
Where Life's battle-thunders cease.

When a fellow does his best,
Fold the tired hands o'er the breast
With a smile, and not a sigh,
"Speed you, comrade—and goodby!"
'Tis his right to leave the fight
Where God's darkness dreams of light!

HON. SIDNEY PAINE DEAD.

Distinguished Alabaman, Uncle of Mrs. Robert Emory Park, of Atlanta.

News of the death of Hon. Sidney B. Paine, one of the most prominent citizens of his section of Alabama, was received in Atlanta yesterday by his niece, Mrs. Robert Emory Park, wife of the state treasurer. Colonel Paine died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at his home in Tuskegee.

The deceased had been for twenty years mayor of his home city and had served with distinction in both branches of the Alabama legislature. He was a Confederate veteran, having served with conspicuous bravery as an officer of the Sixty-first Alabama regiment.

At the time of his death Colonel Paine was 87 years of age and had been ill about two weeks. About two months ago he paid a visit to Captain and Mrs. Park in Atlanta. He retired from the active practice of law only one year ago.

Colonel Paine was a graduate of the University of Georgia and of Jrinceton college. He was highly respected and possessed great influence in his community up to the day he was taken fatally ill. His sister, Mrs. C. P. Hendree, is Mrs. Park's mother

STATE GOSSIP CAUGHT IN CAPITOL CORRIDORS

CAPTAIN T. J. LUMPKIN, of New England City, Dade county, has filed with Governor Terrell his application for appointment as pension commissioner, and along with it has presented some strong indorsements from influential friends in various sections of the state.

Captain Lumpkin was recently in the city and in company with a number of personal friends, among them his brother, Representative Lumpkin, of Walker county, called on the governor and talked the matter over.

Captain Lumpkin entered the confederate service at the beginning of the war. Although a native of Georgia, in which state he has spent practically his entire life, he happened to be in Alabama upon the outbreak of hostilities, and joined the Seventh Alabama regiment, in which he became captain. He afterwards served in the Forty-eighth Alabama and with other commands, and he has in his possession the certificate of a splendid record sent to him voluntarily by Colonel J. L. Sheffield, who was commanding officer of the Forty-eighth Alabama. Captain Lumpkin was wounded at Sharpsburg, but got back into the thick of the fight as soon as he was able to do so. He was born in Floyd county, reared in Walker and now has his home in Dade, where he is engaged in the practice of law.

The appointment of pension commissioner will probably not be made by Governor Terrell until some time in November, as the term of the present officer does not expire until then.

May Vote Out Dispensaries.

There was a pretty warm fight in the house temperance committee meeting yesterday afternoon on a bill by Mr. Buchanan, of Early, providing for the holding of local option elections in counties which now have the dispensary system, as to whether the dispensary shall be retained or voted out.

The fight against the bill was led by Mr. Bush, of Miller, while Mr. Covington, of Colquitt, took the other side in its favor. There was considerable debating among the members of the committee with the result that the committee finally recommended the bill favorably by a vote of 6 to 4.

This bill provides that counties which now have dispensaries through which liquor is sold, may, upon the petition of one-third of the registered voters, hold an election on the question as to whether the dispensary shall be abolished, and the county thus made entirely dry, or whether the dispensary shall be retained as it now stands. If a county decides to vote out a dispensary, or to retain its dispensary, no other election can be held on the subject within four years, nor can any local option election of any kind be held within that time.

There was quite a heated dispute over the terms of this measure, and much spirit was shown on both sides. Mr. Bush left the room, declaring that he would never attend another meeting of the temperance committee during the session. He predicted the defeat of the bill on the floor, but Mr. Covington declared that he would be ready to meet him when the issue came.

As to State Sanitarium.

The house and senate committees on the state sanitarium, held a joint meeting in the senate chamber yesterday, and in several respects the sesion proved quite an intereting one. Several resolutions were offered which brought about considerable debate, and while some of them were adopted, others went to the table or were laid over.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the passage of a resolution recommending to the trustees of the sanitarium, that the alaries o the nurses at that institution be increased to $25 per month. The present salaries of these trained nurses is from $12.50 to $16, not as much as the average trained nurse receives for a week's work. With the increased appropriation which has been given the sanitarium it is believed it will be possible to give the nurses a little better pay.

Both committees passed favorably on the bill by Mr. Hardman, of Jackson, providing for the construction at the sanitarium of four wards for tubercular patients, with a view to separating these from other inmates of the institution.

The two committees recommend the institution of a new water supply at the sanitarium. There is a splendid spring near the institution from which it is believed this supply can be obtained at comparatively small cost.

A resolution recommending that the employes of the institution be put on the same basis as the officials with regard to supplies, was discussed, but na action was taken. The officials of the institution are permitted to purchase supplies from the sanitarium store house at prices just slightly above cost.

To Abolish Fee System.

There was a red-hot scrap in the house special judiciary committee over the bill by Mr. McMichael, of Marion, to abolish the fee system as applicable to solicitors general of superior courts, but, after a long-drawn-out debate, in which both sides of the matter were presented, the committee recommended the bill favorably by a vote of 7 to 5.

Mr. McMichael's bill provides for an entire abolishment of the fee system in connection with the office of solicitor general, and makes it incumbent upon the clerk to collect all fines and forfeitures from which each solicitor general is to be paid a salary of $2,400 a year in addition to the salary now paid by the state of $200 per annum, making a total annual salary of $2,650.

Judging from the vote in the committee room and the discussion which preceded it, this bill is going to bring about some lively talk when it comes up in the house for action.

Cotton Seed Meal Bill.

The house committee on general agriculture yesterday passed favorably on the bill by Mr. Booker, of Troup, the object of which is to prevent the sale of adulterated cotton seed meal. This bill requires that all cotton seed meal offered for sale in the state shall be branded "high grade," or "standard," and that the high grade shall contain 8 1-2 per cent and the standard 7 1-2 per cent of ammonia. The bill makes the necessary exception in the case of meal from sea island cotton seed. There have been frequent cases of the sale of adulterated cotton seed meal, and the object of this measure is to put a stop to it.

The same committee passed favorably on the bill by Senator Lumsden, of the thirty-second, which has already passed the senate, permitting militia districts which have had the stock law in effect for nine years to vote on it again.

The bill, passed by the senate, increasing the salary of the clerk to the commissioner of agriculture from $[1],200 to $1,800, was not acted on because some members of the committee thought such a m[...]

the senate. The attorney general will be asked for an opinion.

To Codify New Laws.

Several important bills were given favorable recommendations yesterday by the house general judiciary committee.

Perhaps one of the most important of these was the bill by Mr. Blackburn, of Fulton, providing for the appointment of one commissioner to codify the statutes of Georgia which have been passed since the adoption of the code in 1895, including the laws to be passed by the present general assembly. It will have been more than ten years since the code was adopted, and many important laws have been placed on the statute books within that time. The codification of these laws is deemed of great importance.

Another interesting bill given a favorable recommendation by the committee is by Mr. Christopher, of Hall, and provides that the county authorities in each county in the state containing more than 10,000 inhabitants shall keep from two to four well-trained bloodhounds for the purpose of tracking criminals. A bill similar to this one was recently passed by the senate.

The committee also made a favorable report on the bill by Senator Crum, of the fourteenth, providing for an amendment to section 2388 of the code, so as to extend the provisions of the section to rural lands. The section relates to loans on real estate made by building and loan associations.

Mr. Perry, of Hall, was given a favorable recommendation on his bill requiring defendants to properly paragraph any matter in their answers which is not directly in answer to matter in the plaintiff's petition.

A favorable report was also given on the bill by Messrs. Griffin and Green, of Cobb, providing for a bond issue of $10,000 by the city of Marietta for school purposes.

The Dublin Circuit.

A new judicial circuit is in prospect. The house committee on general judiciary yesterday afternoon recommended favorably for passage the bill by Mr. Williams, of Laurens, providing for the establishment of a new judicial circuit to be known as the Dublin circuit, and to be composed of the counties of Laurens, Telfair, Dodge and Montgomery.

The bill provides that upon the establishment of this new circuit the judge shall be appointed by the governor, to hold officer until the next general election, when a judge of the circuit shall be elected. It also provides that the solocitors general of the various circuits from which the counties are to be taken to form the proposed new circuit, shall serve out the present terms, when a solicitor general of the new circuit shall be chosen.

Child Labor Bill.

It has been definitely settled that the child labor bill will come up in the house for consideration tomorrow. It was m ade the special order for Wednesday, but it was thought there was a possibility of its being displaced by the general appropriations bill, which has the right of way over everything. However, an agreement has been entered into under which the child labor bill will be permitted to come up, even in the event the appropriations bill has not been completed.

This measure, of which Mr. Bell, of Fulton, is the author, will be reached for consideration immediately after the reading of the journal, and under the resolution adopted by the house, one and a half hours will be allowed for debate on each side.

This measure was given a favorable report by a vote of 17 to 6 by the house committee on labor and labor statistics, and a minority report has been filed by Mr. Longley, of Troup. This report will be read when the bill comes up for action.

Every effort will be made to bring the bill to a vote on Wednesday, but there is a probability that it will have to go over as unfinished business.

Mr. Williams' Pass Bill.

Mr. Williams, of Laurens, introduced a resolution in the house yesterday providing that his anti-passe bill be made a special order for consideration by the house on Thursday, August 2. In accordance with the rules this resolution goes to the committee on rules for report before being acted on by the house.

Mr. Williams' bill was only introduced a few days ago, but it has already been read the second time, and is ready to come up.

This bill provides for an increase to $7 per day in the salaries of members of the legislature, and in the same connection forbids their accepting free passes or franks of any kind. The measure is similar to that passed recently in relation to judges of courts.

No Extra Session Likely.

The proposition to hold an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of considering new county legislation, does not appear to have met with much favor. It is said the senate is almost unanimously against it, and many members of the house take an adverse view. The majority of the members seem to think now that the new county legislation can be disposed of, in so far as is necessary, at the regular session.

It Is Commission Hudson.

Today it is Commissioner of Agriculture Hudson and ex-Commissioner Stevens.

The resignation of Colonel Stevens took effect at midnight last night and his successor in office will take the oath today and enter upon the discharge of his new duties. Colonel Stevens does not become a member of the railroad commission until October 15 and between now and that date he will take a vacation and look after the interests of his farming lands.

In state house circles and in the state at large it is a source of gratification to the hosts of friends of both gentlemen concerned in this transfer that they have been placed in offices where their abilities will still be of benefit to the state, just as they were when Colonel Stevens was commissioner of agriculture and Commissioner Hudson was a popular and valuable member of the senate.

There will be no changes whatever in the personnel of the commissioner's office, which is another source of gratification to everyone at all interested in that office. Captain R. F. Wright has proven himself as a singularly valuable man in the office of assistant commissioner of agriculture and the friends of the department would hate very much to see him go. State Oil Inspector Bryant and Chief Clerk Johnson are in the same class and Commissioner Hudson as was Commissioner Stevens is looked upon as fortunate in the men with whom he will be associated in his new duties.

Prison Commission.

The prison commission met yesterday for its regular August term and began the transaction of business. All three [...] were on hand when Chairman Turner called the board to order. Unless an appeal is made to commute the sentence of Jack Bone to imprisonment for life the commission will, however, not have any very important cases to hear this term.

On the recommendation of the commission Governor Terrell yesterday extended executive clemency to Charles Kimball, convicted of burglary in the Chatham superior court in November, 1901, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Kimball was a valuable witness for the state in several important cases and has proven a model prisoner while in the penitentiary. His assistance to the state in the cases spoken of was the most influential fact in securing his commutation of sentence to present service.

More Tax Digests.

The tax digest of six more counties were brought into the office of Captain W. H. Harrison, chief clerk to the comptroller general, when the expressman made his rounds at the capitol yesterday. Each one of this half dozen counties showed fine increases, especially Mitchell county, where the figures are more than $1,000,000 in excess of last year.

The figures for the different counties received yesterday were:

Mitchell, for 1904, $3,172,861; for 1905, $4,301,772; gain, $1,128,611; Columbia, for 1904, $980,986; for 1905, $1,059,995; Newton, for 1904, $3,365,214; for 1905, $3,600,155; gain, $234,941; Randolph, for 1904, $2,338,354; for 1905, $2,732,981; gain, $394,627; Telfair, for 1904, $1,726,597; for 1905, $2,204,209; gain, $477,612; Rabun, for 1904, $761,702; for 1905, $854,364; gain, $92,662.

Charter Amended.

Secretary of State Phil Cook yesterday granted a petition to amend the charter of the City Electric Railway Company, of Rome, Ga. The amendment permits the company to increase its capital stock by $300,000 and to issue bonds to a similar amount. The company's attorney is R. A. Denny.

New Tax Collector.

Hon. Asa C. Cleveland was yesterday commissioned tax collector of Hart county to succeed the late Hon. R. G. Bowers. The commission was signed by the governor and sent to Mr. Cleveland.

LETTERS FROM PEOPLE.

The Child Labor Bill.

Editor Constitution: Every thoughtful patriot—every friend of good government—has felt a peculiar sense of pride and satisfaction in the good things which are being said by press and people about our present legislature. The enthusiastic passage of the reformatory measure by such an overwhelming majority has given new hope for humanitarian legislation in Georgia. The princely offer of Hon. [...] G. Hardman, together with others who seem ready to personally supplement legislative appropriations, only adds emphasis to the wise thing that has been done.

Now, the next humane legislation which the wise people are calling for, is the passage of the child labor bill. I do not enter into a comparison between the pending bill and others which may have hitherto been offered. Possibly some of their points were vulnerable, although I must say that in general terms I have been in favor of all of them. But it does seem that the bill proposed by Hon. Madison Bell is sane enough to suit any man who is sane himself in his love for humanity. The scope of this card will not allow the discussion of the bill in detail. It is enough to say that the only objection I have heard to the present bill is the claim of the friends of child legislation, that it is hardly drastic enough in the favor of the children. But Mr. Bell has doubtless sought to be conservative in order to disarm opposition, and at the same time secure a law which will be a positive blessing to thousands of children now, and at the same time be a safeguard against indolent parentage and the encroachment of some mill owners who are not as good as some other mill owners.

In the little town of Jewell I have seen factory owners and operatives rejoice to work in the same church, their children gladly mingling in the same social circles, and operative and owner speaking in terms always of love and confidence for each other. During a gracious religious meeting I saw the wheels of the factory stop for a day in order that employees and employers might worship God together and rejoice in the salvation of their children. Here every necessary educational requirement is wisely and generously looked after by the owners of the settlement.

Doubtless there are many other mills where similar conditions prevail. But there are hundreds of them where such saving conditions do not prevail—where employers grind—and children suffer; where the luster has been dimmed in the eyes of the young, and where the light of hope has faded from the faces of mothers and wives. I have seen these conditions with my own eyes; and I know, as every thoughtful man knows, that it is against this danger to our civilization that the provisions of the pending bill is aimed.

Georgia might as well get ready for child labor legislation. Other states have led us for years. The Empire State of the South should no longer lag behind. There is nothing unreasonable in the demands of this bill. Therefore, let those who have hitherto opposed child labor legislation come to its support.

WILLIAM D. UPSHAW.

Creation of Game and Fish Committee Commended.

Editor Constitution: Nothing could be more gratifying to the humane people of the state than the adoption of the resolution prepared and introduced by Hon. Martin V. Calvin, of Richmond, creating a standing committee on game and fish.

The progress and civilization of a community can be very accurately gauged by the estimate in which game and fish are held, and by the protection which the law affords them.

Independent of the market value of the game and fish which are preserved under the enforcement of proper laws, there is a sentimental side to the question which should not be lost sight of, even by so practical a body of men as the legislators of the state.

In all of the older civilized communities most stringent laws are of force for the protection of fishes, birds and animals, and as a consequence of these laws, the public realize the value of these creatures.

The prevalence of song birds in a community might, and should be, sufficient of itself to determine the homeseeker to locate there and certainly none of our Georgia people can ever forget the blessing which one bird, the mockingbird, has brought to our ears and to our hearts.

All that the good people of our state need is thought and education upon this important subject. Respectfully,

HENRY C. HAMMOND.

WANTED TO CHOP THEIR SALARIES

Knight, of Berrien, Attacked the Railroad Commission.

But Salaries Are Fixed by Law, and No Change Could Be Made. Sanitarium Gets Good Appropriation—The Mattingly Bonds.

Somewhat of a stir was created in the house yesterday when the general appropriations bill was under discussion, by an amendment offered by Mr. Knight, of Berrien, proposing to reduce the salaries of the members of the railroad commission from $2,500 to $1,000 each.

Mr. Knight, in supporting the amendment, said the railroad commission was rightly named, because it did more for the railroads than for the state.

"Does the gentleman know that the railroad commission recently brought about reductions in rates which cost the railroads $900,000 a year?" asked Mr. Anderson, of Chatham.

"No; this is the first I have heard of it," said Mr. Knight; "but I'm glad to hear it."

Mr. Knight said $1,000 was all the railroad commissioners were worth, considering the service they rendered the state. He threw a bouquet at Pope Brown, who, he said, had been trying to do something, but couldn't, and said he had no reflection to make upon the newly appointed commissioner, Hon. O. B. Stevens.

Mr. Knight was allowed to finish his speech, after which he was informed that his amendment was out of order, as the salaries of the railrail commissioners are fixed by law. Of course, under the circumstances, no change could be made in these salaries in the general appropriation bill.

The general appropriations bill was taken up shortly aft 11 o'clock. The house adopted a resolution limiting debate to ten minutes to each speaker, and then went into committee of the whole with Mr. Calvin, of Richmond, in the chair.

The committee of the whole passed up the bill section by section, including the expenses of the executive department, salaries of judges and expenses of the legislative department without debate except on the item of railroad commissioners' salaries.

The academy for the blind at Macon was given $18,000, and the Georgia school for the deaf at Cave Spring was voted $30,000.

State Sanitarium.

The appropriation to the state sanitarium at Milledgeville brought up the next debate. The sanitarium was given $337,500 in 1905 and the committee increased it to $360,000 for 1906 and $370,000 for 1907.

Mr. Davis, of Burke, chairman of the general appropriations committee, explained why the increase had been made at the urgent solicitation of the trustees. Considering the conditions and the number of inmates cared for, the state sanitarium, Mr. Davis declared, is the cheapest of all the state's institutions. There are now 3,016 patients in the sanitarium, and they are increasing at the rate of 100 a year. He said the trustees had asked for $397,000 for 1906 and $407,000 for 1907, but the committee had gone carefully into the matter, and considered that, while the amounts given by the committee would be sufficient, they were absolutely needed.

Messrs. Knight, of Berrien, and Felder, of Bibb, seemed to think the appropriation was too large, and asked some questions to find out about it. Mr. Kelly, of Glascock, and Mr. Hines, of Baldwin, spoke in favor of the increased appropriations made by the committee. Mr. Hines said the trustees had asked for 35 cents per capita per day for the inmates, but had been given only about 33. This amount, he said, was small enough, was absolutely necessary, in fact, for the proper maintenance of the institution.

The committee adopted the increased amounts, without noticeable objection, giving the sanitarium $360,000 for 1906 and $370,000 for 1907.

At this point consideration of the appropriations bill was dropped on account of the arrival of the hour of adjournment.

The Mattingly Bonds.

The house, after a warm debate, refused to make the bill to pay the Mattingly bonds a special order for this morning as was recommended by the committee on rules. Messrs. Knight, of Berrien, and Felder, of Bibb, opposed the proposition on the ground that it would interfere with the house calendar on which there were many bills ahead of this measure and entitled to the right of way. Messrs. Wright, of Richmond; Mr. Perry, of Hall, and others favored taking the matter up, as they said it was a matter of simple justice that the question should be disposed of. Mr. Wright favors the payment of the bonds, while Mr. Perry is opposed to it. But both thought the question should be disposed of in justice to those who have waited so long for a settlement of it. The Mattingly bonds were issued under an act of 1859, and given to the Sharps Rifle Company in payment for arms for the state militia. The principal is $11,000, and the interest now amounts to $13,200, making a total of $24,200, which the bill seeks to appropriate. Another effort will probably be made to get the bill up at this session.

Atlanta Circuit Bill.

The house passed the bill by Messrs. Slaton, Blackburn and Bell, of Fulton, providing that in future there shall be six terms each year of Fulton superior court instead of two. The object of this is to facilitate the transaction of legal business by bringing the trial term nearer by several months to the appearance term.

The house also passed the following bills:

By Messrs. Nowell and Galloway, of Walton—To abolish the county court of Walton county, and to create the city court of Monroe.

By Mr. Wright of Richmond—To fix the salary of the judge of the city court of Richmond county at $5,000.

By Mr. Wright of Richmond—To increase the salary of the judge of the superior court of the Augusta circuit from $3,000 to $5,000, the difference to be paid out of the Richmond county treasury.

By Mr. Rucker of Clarke—To amend section 495 of the penal code, relating to the disposition of garbage, dead bodies, etc., so as to make the sanitary provisions of this and kindred sections applicable to cities of 1,000 or more inhabitants, instead of 50,000 as at present.

By Mr. Almand of Rockdale—To provide for the increase in the board of directors of the Bank of Rockdale from five to fifteen.

By Mr. Parker of Appling—To amend the act creating the city court of Baxley.

By Messrs. Slaton, Blackburn and Bell of Fulton—To increase the number of terms of the superior court of Fulton county from two to six each year.

By Messrs. Ashley and McRee of Lowndes—To amend the act establishing the city court of Valdosta.

Treutlen County.

The following bill was introduced by Mr. Stovall, of Chatham, by request:

To create the new county of Treutlen from portions of Troup, Harris and Meriwether counties, with Chipley, in Harris county, as the county seat.

The measure was introduced in order that it might be referred to the new county committee. It is stated that all of the representatives of the counties in question refused to introduce the bill.

The following bills were also introduced:

By Mr. Donalson of Decatur—To incorporate the town of Lela.

By Mr. Trammell of Harris—To amend section 2349 of the code, relative to special terms of superior courts.

By Mr. Flanders of Johnson—To make it a misdemeanor for any person other than a qualified voter to vote in any primary election or to take part in any political mass meeting for the selection of delegates.

By Messrs. Russell and Jackson of Muscogee—To amend the road laws so far as they relate to Muscogee county.

By Mr. Anderson of Bulloch—To amend the act creating the city court of Statesboro.

By Mr. Bowden of Monroe—To amend the act establishing the city court of Forsyth.

By Mr. Bacon of Bryan—To incorporate the town of Pembroke in Bryan county.

SAID 'HELLO, HUN,' TO PASSING LADY

Hamby Fined $15.75 on Charge of Insulting Lady.

Endearing epithets are sometimes dear, as was shown in the case of G. W. Hamby, a railroad engineer, who was tried in the recorder's court yesterday afternoon on the charge of insulting a young woman.

Miss Ollie Thompson, who lives on the Howell's mill road, just outside the city limits, was the complainant. She testified that she was walking along Marietta street Saturday afternoon and when near the corner of Foundry she met Hamby, who appeared to be intoxicated.

"I tried to avoid the man," she stated in court, "by crossing the street, but he followed me and as I was passing him he spoke to me."

Miss Thompson paused and the recorder said:

"Well, tell me what he said."

"He said, 'Hello, Hun,'" replied Miss Thompson.

"And was that all he said?" queried the recorder.

"That was all," replied the witness. "He said, 'Hello, Hun,' and I kept walking on."

Hamby said he was drinking and did not remember having spoken to the lady. Recorder Broyles entered a fine of $15.75, which was paid.

WOULD EXEMPT THIS PROPERTY

Proposed Amendment to Constitution Before Senate.

Would Exempt Religious Worship and Burial and All College Property—Other Measures Before Senate in Brief Session Held Yesterday.

An important suggested amendment to the constitution of the state which has been before the legislature for the past several years, but which the general assembly has never yet given the people an opportunity to pass upon was again presented in the senate yesterday by Senator Candler.

Senator Candler's bill provides for an amendment to paragraph 2, section 2 of article 7 of the constitution of Georgia so as to enlarge the power of exemption from taxation of all places of religious worship or burial, and all property belonging to colleges, incorporated academies or other seminaries of learning.

Senator Candler is intensely interested in this measure which he believes will contribute to the prosperity of the schools and colleges of the state, and which he believes the people of the state will overwhelmingly ratify if given the opportunity by the general assembly.

Owing to the congested condition of the calendar and the short time before adjournment it is doubtful if this bill will reach a vote at the present session, but its friends and supporters intend to do all in their power to bring the matter to a vote at the next session of the present general assembly.

Senator Wheatley introduced a bill providing for a codification of the laws of the state relating to the militia of Georgia yesterday.

A very short session of the senate was held yesterday, the business of the upper house being up to date.

First General Bill.

The only general measure which has been transmitted to the senate by the house came over yesterday. This was Hon. T. B. Felder's reformatory bill. It will doubtless be several days before this bill will reach a vote in the senate, as it is has yet to be read the required number of times and be considered by the proper committee.

The following appointments were received from the governor by the senate in executive session yesterday:

Hon. Henry B. Peeples, to be judge of the city court of Nashville until January 1, 1907.

Hon. W. D. Bule, to be solicitor of the city court of Nashville until January 1, 1907.

Hon. Charles P. Hansell, to be judge of the court of Pike for a term of two years from April 19, 1906.

Hon. P. D. Shearouse, to be judge of the county court of Effingham for the term of four years from December 22, 1905.

Hon. Charles P. Hansell, to be judge of the county court of Thomas for the term of four years from May 5, 1905.

Senator Steed's joint resolution providing for a visit to the various convict camps of the state by a subcommittee during the recess between the sessions of the legislature was passed by the senate yesterday after being amended by Senator Steed so as to provide that no member of the subcommittee should serve longer than ten days.

New Bills.

By Senator Candler—A bill to amend paragraph 2, section 2, article 7 of the constitution so as to enlarge the power of exemption of all places of religious worship or burial, and all property belonging to colleges, incorporated academies or other seminaries of learning.

By Senator Blalock—A bill to make it unlawful for any person or persons to carry on or operate any dance hall or place of amusement outside of any incorporated town, in any county, having a city with a population of 8,000 or more, without written consent of two-thirds of the freeholders living within a radius of 3 miles of the place.

By Senator Wheatley—A bill to amend and codify the laws of Georgia relating to the militia of the state.

By Senator Mills—A resolution to provide for the paying of the pensions of William Gunter to his widow, Eliza J. Gunter.

Bills Passed.

By Senator McLennan of Telfair—A bill to establish the city court of McRae.

Annual August Discount Sale Tuesday Morning

Two warm months are behind us; two warm months are before us, and yet the zenith of our Clothing Stock has not passed. From the first days of the season when we began with such a collection as appeared nowhere else, the volume and variety have been growing, and now the assortment is beyond even the imagination of most Clothiers, far beyond competitive achievement.

One element in all this is the permanent organization of our own factory where the latest, most exclusive, carefully guarded, brilliant and autocratic ideas in Men's Dress originate and emanate each season. This explains the advent of choice lots that without talk of types have been moving quickly at regularly prices.

But they and the rest are now caught in the current of the Discount Sale—particulars of which—follow.

MODISH WAISTS FOR MISSES.

Produced by the Peerless Pattern No. 2637.

The simple modes are always pretty for young girls and this yoke waist shown in a combination of all-over embroidery and white organdy will surely become a favorite. A charming waist for party and evening wear was developed in point d'esprit, made with the neck low and with three-quarter sleeves.

The pattern is in five sizes—13 to 17 years. For a miss of 15 years, the high necked waist with long sleeves needs 4 1-4 yards 20 inches wide, 2 7-8 yards 36 inches wide or 2 3-8 yards 44 inches wide. The low necked waist with three-quarter sleeves will require 3 1-8 yards 20 inches wide, 2 1-8 yards 36 inches wide, or 1 5-8 yards 44 inches wide. If waist is made as shown in front view 1 3-4 yards of all-over goods 18 inches wide will be needed. Price, 10 cents.

T. P. SHONTS OF CANAL COMMISSION

He Is Much Interested in a Southern Institution.

Mr. T. P. Shonts, now chairman of the commission which is charged with the important task of digging the great Panama canal, has a beautiful home in the south and takes much interest in southern development. As a recent patron of Agnes Scott institute, at Decatur, Ga., he addressed to the president of that institution the following letter:

"My Dear Sir: After three years' experience with two daughters in your school we have great pleasure in testifying to the healthfulness of your climate, to the excellent sanitary condition of your buildings to the high standard of your curriculum, to the thoroughness of your instruction and to the homelike and pure moral atmosphere which pervades your entire institution.

"From being confirmed invalids because of chronic throat trouble, your climate and sanitary surroundings have made them splendid specimens of healthful girlhood; with no previous mental training you have made them thorough and systematic students, and with no former experience outside their own home influences you made them—although strangers and extremely young—happy and contented in your college circle.

"For these results we are very grateful and wish for you and your institution the great measure of success you richly deserve. Yours very truly,

"The homelike and pure moral atmosphere which pervades the entire institution" is with thoughtful parents one of the strongest reasons for selecting Agnes Scott institute as a home for their daughters while students. A fuller idea of the equipment and work of this college may be gained from the catalogue and bulletins which may be had for the asking. We heartily commend this growing school to the attention of all who desire thorough instruction under the most favorable conditions for developing true womanhood.

Best, because absolutely pure, made of finest materials, extra strength and with natural flavor.

DR. BULL VISITS ATLANTA.

Was Former Pastor of West End Presbyterian Church—Ministers in Session.

Rev. G. W. Bull, former pastor of West End Presbyterian church, is in the city for a brief stay. Probably no pastor was more generally popular during his ministry in the city than Dr. Bull and his old friends are delighted to see him back again even for a short stay.

In regard to his work in Nashville he says that he is progressing very encouragingly. Nashville is not as active and wide-awake a city as Atlanta in the eyes of Dr. Bull.

He has been away from Atlanta for about two years and says that he notes with much pleasure many changes of interest and advantage to the city.

Not long since he says he was talking to a traveling man regarding the two places, Atlanta and Nashville. This man said that the difference between Atlanta and Nashville was well set forth in the following:

"If a building burns down in Atlanta the question immediately is shall we erect a ten, fifteen or twenty story building? In Nashville the question is can we rebuild?"

Dr. Bull is visiting some of his old friends, and is on his way back home from a chautauqua engagement.

MINSTERS' MEETNG.

The Baptist ministers have adjourned for the summer. The Presbyterian ministers met at 10:30 o'clock in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church. No regular meeting was held but an informal discussion of varied topics took place. The Methodist ministers met at 10 o'clock at the Wesley Memorial Tabernacle and while there was a good attendance no special matter of interest came up. All the associaitons are "resting" preparatory to the winter's campaign.

Taylor Shot Dead by Walton.

Mobile, Ala., July 31.—News reached here this morning of a cold blooded murder at Yellow Pine, Ala., last night, a lumber town on the Mobile and Ohio railroad, 60 miles north of Mobile. Hammond Taylor was standing near the hotel when James Walton approached, and without warning, pulled a pistol and shot Taylor through the heart. No attempt was made to stop Walton, and he passed out of the town with the weapon in his hands. No reason can be assigned for the tragedy. Both men are well known in the community.

WASHINGTON SEMINARY.

The Boarding Department.

By receiving only a limited number of boarding students, the seminary affords a refined and delightful home for its girls. The principals, faculty and students compose a family of about thirty-five persons. In this way the home feature is emphasized; the teachers come in close touch with the students and careful attention is given to their health, studies and moral training in a manner that would not be possible with large numbers. The building is new, comfortably furnished throughout, located in the best residential part of Atlanta and has ample grounds for play grounds, games, etc.

GRANT PARK ZOO IS REPLENISHED

Ten New Animals and One Dozen Parrots Purchased.

Public Opening of New Cages Will Take Place Thursday Afternoon, When There Will Be Music—Park Board Will Be Present.

Ten new animals and one dozen parrots have been purchased for Grant park, and they are already installed in their quarters at the zoo.

The shipment for 1905 arrived in Atlanta yesterday morning, and the animals were immediately taken to the park. All the animals arrived in splendid condition, with the exception of a lioness, which received a slight scratch upon her forehead, evidently caused by being thrown against the side of her cage by the motion of the train. The injury, however, is not of sufficient importance to hurt her, and it will not even leave a scar.

Following is a list of the new animals at the Grant park zoo:

One pair, male and female, black-face sheep, natives of India.

One pair, male and female, robustus kangaroos.

One Japanese bear, native of Korea.

One baboon, native of India.

One black ape, native of Africa.

One pair, male and female, lamas.

One dozen Mexican parrots.

These purchases were made for the zoo by President Walter R. Brown, of the park board, Park Commissioner A. L. Dunn, Clerk John S. Parks and Councilman A. L. Curtis. The purchases were made with the $1,000 that is given annually by President Preston S. Arkwright, of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company, for the replenishing of the Grant park zoo. In addition to these purchases tentative offers were made for various other animals, which will probably be secured later during the season.

Public Is Invited.

Thursday afternoon has been determined upon by the board of park commissioners as the time for the first public inspection of the new animals. On that afternoon all members of the park board will be at Grant park, special invitations will be extended to the members of council and all citizens are requested to be present for the purpose of seeing the new animals.

On that afternoon Wedemeyer's concert band will give one of its regular park concerts from 3:30 until 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and this of itself will be an attraction for the people. As an unusually large crowd will be at the park Chief Jennings will have several additional patrolmen there, but they will be present merely for the purpose of taking care of the children and attending to vehicles, as it is rarely ever necessary to make any arrests in Grant park.

John S. Parks, who is in charge of the work at the park, has done much to beautify the place this season. The flower beds are in excellent condition, the grass is green, all the buildings are attractive, and there are plenty of benches for every one.

The natural attractions of the park, the flowers, the music and the animals, which with the ones already in the zoo, give Atlanta the finest menagerie in the south, will probably cause thousands to visit Grant park next Thursday afternoon, when all the commissioners will be present to formally introduce the replenished zoo to the citizens.

President Brown Is Pleased.

In announcing the arrival of the animals yesterday morning President Walter R. Brown, of the board of park commissioners, said:

"I believe we have secured animals that will be real attractions at the park zoo. Before we left Mr. Arkwright, who has generously agreed to give $1,000 year for five years to the park for animals, told us that if we wanted to spend as much as $4,000 for animals he would give us his check. We thought this another evidence of his interest in the park and Atlanta. We did not exceed the annual appropriation, however, although we have seen some purchases that we would like to make and we have made tentative offers for them.

"I wish every citizen of Atlanta, always including the ladies, would visit the park and see the beautiful playground for the people that the city government has prepared."

Fine Building Record.

Permits for the erection of seventy-eight new dwellings in Atlanta were issued during July by Building Inspector Frank A. Pittman. As each new dwelling means a new family and as each new family means five persons, some indication of the increase in Atlanta's population may be obtained, particularly as all apartment houses are filled and the rooms of those being built are already engaged.

The record in the office of the building department shows that during July 261 permits for new buildings were issued, a slight decrease from July, 1904, when 278 permits were issued. The records also show that 1905 is behind 1904 in the number of permits. During the first seven months of 1904, 1,992 permits were issued, while during the first seven months of 1905, 1,933 permits were issued.

In the value of buildings erected, however, this year is far ahead of 1904. The cost of buildings for which permits were issued during July, 1905, was $347,689, while the cost of buildings for which permits were issued during July, 1904, was $323,000. It is also true that the aggregate value of buildings this year is much ahead of the aggregate for the same period last year.

As the number of permits has decreased and the aggregate values have increased, the only conclusion is that a much better class of structures is being erected this year.

Committees Will Meet.

Council's committees will meet this week for the purpose of preparing reports upon measures referred to them during the last session of the general council. The reports will be read during the meeting of next Monday afternoon.

The ordinance committee, of which Councilman Ellis is chairman, will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Tomorrow there will be three meetings the police committee, Councilman Oldknow, chairman, at 10 o'clock, in the morning; the electric light committee, Alderman Sims, chairman, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the tax committee, Alderman Hirsch, chairman, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The only meeting yet announced for Thursday is that of the claims committee, which will meet at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

On Friday the street committee, Alderman Holland, chairman, meets at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the board of health, of which Dr. Benson is president, meets at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Next Monday the committees on hospitals and charities, Councilman Bagley, chairman, meets at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Meeting Was Not Held.

The meeting between members of the general council, local members of the general assembly and the Washington street steering committee, regarding the closing of Waverly place to permit the construction of the Washington street viaduct, did not take place yesterday afternoon. It is now certain that the conference regarding the matter cannot be held until Thursday evening.

The time for the conference has not been definitely determined upon. Notice will be served in ample time to permit all interested parties to be present.

Public Is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, Ohio, writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at any drug store; price 50c.

Stockdell-Harrel.

THE marriage of Miss Evan Stockdell and Dr. S. B. Harrel, of Nashville, was solemnized last evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. B. Erd, 221 Forrest avenue.

It was a very quiet wedding, only a few relatives being present to witness the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Dr. U. D. Gwin.

The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. Stockdell and a sister of Mr. H. C. Stockdell, of this city. She is an unusually lovely young woman and possesse a bright and charming personality.

Dr. Harrel is a well-known specialist and business man of Nashville.

To Visiting Girls.

MISS LOUISE VAN HARLINGEN and her guests, Miss Florence Christy, of Cincinnati, and Miss Vera McAlpin, of Columbus, Ohio, will have a number of pleasant affairs given in their honor this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Van Harlingen will entertain them with a trolley ride to Marietta and they will also give them a luncheon at the Capital City Club and a dinner at Piedmont Driving Club some time during the week.

Miss Crass, of Chattanooga, arrives the latter part of the week on a visit to Miss Van Harlingen.

Dinner at Piedmont.

Mr. Day is on his way home from the chautauqua at Newnan, and his guests at the dinner included friends that he met while there. In the party were Mrs. William Calvin Chilton, the talented reader and musician; Miss Florence Marion Page, of Chicago; Miss Nell Forbes and Mr. F. M. Loveless, of Atlanta, and Mr. Franc Campbell, of Newnan.

Officers Elected.

THE King's Daughters, circle No. 2, held their annual election of officers last Friday afternoon at Mrs. W. O. Ballard's, 12 Alice street. The officers elected were: Leader, Mrs. C. F. Toree; vice leader, Mrs. Blount; second vice leader, Mrs. E. J. Kelly; secretary, Mrs. C. C. Adams; assistant secretary, Miss Ellie Gheesling; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Paul Greene; assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. Johns; treasurer, Mrs. W. O. Ballard; chaplain, Miss Randall.

After the election of officers Mrs. Ballard entertained the circle with light refreshments. The house was beautifully decorated in purple and white, the colors of the King's Daughters. The table centerpiece was a beautiful bank of purple and white asters, which flowers were also tastefully placed about the rooms.

Lawn Festival.

AN afternoon and evening of enjoyment is planned for the patrons of the lawn festival which is to be held tomorrow at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Spalding, on Peachtree street. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the St. Vincent de Paul Society are in charge, and they have arranged for delightful amusements and refreshments in the afternoon for the children and in the evening for the grown people. A large gathering is expected on both occasions, the object of which is a splendid charity.

Lawn Festival.

A lawn festival will be given on tomorrow, August [illegible] on the lawn of Mrs. R. D. Spalding, 674 Peachtree street, for the benefit of St. Vincent de Paul Society. The ballot for our future governor for the grown people and grab bags for the children will keep all entertained. Delightful refreshments will be served.

MODISH WAISTS FOR MISSES.

Produced by the Peerless Pattern No. 2637.

The simple modes are always pretty for young girls and this yoke waist shown in a combination of all-over embroidery and white organdy will surely become a favorite. A charming waist for party and evening wear was developed in point d'esprit, made with the neck low and with three-quarter sleeves.

The pattern is in five sizes—13 to 17 years. For a miss of 15 years, the high necked waist with long sleeves needs 4 1-4 yards 20 inches wide, 2 7-8 yards 36 inches wide or 2 3-8 yards 44 inches wide. The low necked waist with three-quarter sleeves will require 3 1-8 yards 20 inches wide, 2 1-8 yards 36 inches wide, or 1 5-8 yards 44 inches wide. If waist is made as shown in front view 1 3-4 yards of all-over goods 18 inches wide will be needed. Price, 10 cents.

T. P. SHONTS OF CANAL COMMISSION

He Is Much Interested in a Southern Institution.

Mr. T. P. Shonts, now chairman of the commission which is charged with the important task of digging the great Panama canal, has a beautiful home in the south and takes much interest in southern development. As a recent patron of Agnes Scott institute, at Decatur, Ga., he addressed to the president of that institution the following letter:

"My Dear Sir: After three years' experience with two daughters in your school we have great pleasure in testifying to the healthfulness of your climate, to the excellent sanitary condition of your buildings to the high standard of your curriculum, to the thoroughness of your instruction and to the homelike and pure moral atmosphere which pervades your entire institution.

"From being confirmed invalids because of chronic throat trouble, your climate and sanitary surroundings have made them splendid specimens of healthful girlhood; with no previous mental training you have made them thorough and systematic students, and with no former experience outside their own home influences you made them—although strangers and extremely young—happy and contented in your college circle.

"For these results we are very grateful and wish for you and your institution the great measure of success you richly deserve. Yours very truly,

"T. P. SHONTS."

"The homelike and pure moral atmosphere which pervades the entire institution" is with thoughtful parents one of the strongest reasons for selecting Agnes Scott institute as a home for their daughters while students. A fuller idea of the equipment and work of this college may be gained from the catalogue and bulletins which may be had for the asking. We heartily commend this growing school to the attention of all who desire thorough instruction under the most favorable conditions for developing true womanhood.

DR. BULL VISITS ATLANTA.

Was Former Pastor of West End Presbyterian Church—Ministers in Session.

Rev. G. W. Bull, former pastor of West End Presbyterian church, is in the city for a brief stay. Probably no pastor was more generally popular during his ministry in the city than Dr. Bull and his old friends are delighted to see him back again even for a short stay.

In regard to his work in Nashville he says that he is progressing very encouragingly. Nashville is not as active and wide-awake a city as Atlanta in the eyes of Dr. Bull.

He has been away from Atlanta for about two years and says that he notes with much pleasure many changes of interest and advantage to the city.

Not long since he says he was talking to a traveling man regarding the two places, Atlanta and Nashville. This man said that the difference between Atlanta and Nashville was well set forth in the following:

"If a building burns down in Atlanta the question immediately is shall we erect a ten, fifteen or twenty story building? In Nashville the question is can we rebuild?"

Dr. Bull is visiting some of his old friends, and is on his way back home from a chautauqua engagement.

MINSTERS' MEETNG.

The Baptist ministers have adjourned for the summer. The Presbyterian ministers met at 10:30 o'clock in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church. No regular meeting was held but an informal discussion of varied topics took place. The Methodist ministers met at 10 o'clock at the Wesley Memorial Tabernacle and while there was a good attendance no special matter of interest came up. All the associaitons are "resting" preparatory to the winter's campaign.

GRANT PARK ZOO IS REPLENISHED

Ten New Animals and One Dozen Parrots Purchased.

Public Opening of New Cages Will Take Place Thursday Afternoon, When There Will Be Music—Park Board Will Be Present.

Ten new animals and one dozen parrots have been purchased for Grant park, and they are already installed in their quarters at the zoo.

The shipment for 1906 arrived in Atlanta yesterday morning, and the animals were immediately taken to the park. All the animals arrived in splendid condition, with the exception of a lioness, which received a slight scratch upon her forehead, evidently caused by being thrown against the side of her cage by the motion of the train. The injury, however, is not of sufficient importance to hurt her, and it will not even leave a scar.

Following is a list of the new animals at the Grant park zoo:

One pair, male and female, robustus kangaroos.

One Japanese bear, native of Korea.

One baboon, native of India.

One black ape, native of Africa.

One pair, male and female, lamas.

One dozen Mexican parrots.

These purchases were made for the zoo by President Walter R. Brown, of the park board, Park Commissioner A. L. Dunn, Clerk John S. Parks and Councilman A. L. Curtis. The purchases were made with the $1,000 that is given annually by President Preston S. Arkwright, of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company, for the replenishing of the Grant park zoo. In addition to these purchases tentative offers were made for various other animals, which will probably be secured later during the season.

Public Is Invited.

Thursday afternoon has been determined upon by the board of park commissioners as the time for the first public inspection of the new animals. On that afternoon all members of the park board will be at Grant park, special invitations will be extended to the members of council and all citizens are requested to be present for the purpose of seeing the new animals.

On that afternoon Wedemeyer's concert band will give one of its regular park concerts from 3:30 until 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and this of itself will be an attraction for the people. As an unusually large crowd will be at the park Chief Jennings will have several additional patroimen there, but they will be present merely for the purpose of taking care of the children and attending to vehicles, as it is rarely ever necessary to make any arrests in Grant park.

John S. Parks, who is in charge of the work at the park, has done much to beautify the place this season. The flower beds are in excellent condition, the grass is green, all the buildings are attractive, and there are plenty of benches for every one.

The natural attractions of the park, the flowers, the music and the animals, which with the ones already in the zoo, give Atlanta the finest menagerie in the south, will probably cause thousands to visit Grant park next Thursday afternoon, when all the commissioners will be present to formally introduce the replenished zoo to the citizens.

President Brown Is Pleased.

In announcing the arrival of the animals yesterday morning President Walter R. Brown, of the board of park commissioners, said:

"I believe we have secured animals that will be real attractions at the park zoo. Before we left Mr. Arkwright, who has generously agreed to give $1,000 year for five years to the park for animals, told us that if we wanted to spend as much as $4,000 for animals he would give us his check. We thought this another evidence of his interest in the park and Atlanta. We did not exceed the annual appropriation, however, although we have seen some purchases that we would like to make and we have made tentative offers for them.

"I wish every citizen of Atlanta, always including the ladies, would visit the park and see the beautiful playground for the people that the city government has prepared."

Fine Building Record.

Permits for the erection of seventy-eight new dwellings in Atlanta were issued during July by Building Inspector Frank A. Pittman. As each new dwelling means a new family and as each new family means five persons, some indication of the increase in Atlanta's population may be obtained, particularly as all apartment houses are filled and the rooms of those being built are already engaged.

The record in the office of the building department shows that during July 261 permits for new buildings were issued, a slight decrease from July, 1904, when 276 permits were issued. The records also show that 1905 is behind 1904 in the number of permits. During the first seven months of 1904, 1,992 permits were issued, while during the first seven months of 1905, 1,933 permits were issued.

In the value of buildings erected, however, this year is far ahead of 1904. The cost of buildings for which permits were issued during July, 1905, was $347,689, while the cost of buildings for which permits were issued during July, 1904, was $323,000. It is also true that the aggregate value of buildings this year is much ahead of the aggregate for the same period last year.

As the number of permits has decreased and the aggregate values have increased, the only conclusion is that a much better class of structures is being erected this year.

Committees Will Meet.

Council's committees will meet this week for the purpose of preparing reports upon measures referred to them during the last session of the general council. The reports will be read during the meeting of next Monday afternoon.

The ordinance committee, of which Councilman Ellis is chairman, will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Tomorrow there will be three meetings the police committee, Councilman Oldknow, chairman, at 10 o'clock, in the morning; the electric light committee, Alderman Sims, chairman, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the tax committee, Alderman Hirsch, chairman, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The only meeting yet announced for Thursday is that of the claims committee, which will meet at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

On Friday the street committee, Alderman Holland, chairman, meets at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the board of health, of which Dr. Benson is president, meets at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Next Monday the committees on hospitals and charities, Councilman Bagley, chairman, meets at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Meeting Was Not Held.

The meeting between members of the general council, local members of the general assembly and the Washington street steering committee, regarding the closing of Waverly place to permit the construction of the Washington street viaduct, did not take place yesterday afternoon. It is now certain that the conference regarding the matter cannot be held until Thursday evening.

The time for the conference has not been definitely determined upon. Notice will be served in ample time to permit all interested parties to be present.

Public Is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, Ohio, writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at any drug store; price 50c.

WARM CONTEST IS WAGED OVER NEW GRADY COUNTY

"GRADY" county, the county proposed to be formed from parts of the counties of Thomas and Decatur, with Cairo as a county seat, was the first and only business before the committee on new counties yesterday.

After roll call Judge H. W. Hopkins, of Thomasville, stated that he represented those petitioning to have the new county of Grady created. Judge Hopkins stated that he represented "Grady" not as a paid attorney, but because he believed the justice of the case.

Judge Hopkins spoke of the extensive area of the two counties of Decatur and Thomas. He stated that from the western boundary of Decatur to the eastern boundary of Thomas was more than one-third the distance across the southern portion of the state, and that hte total number of square miles of Decatur county was 1,068, and of Thomas county 788.

The affidavits giving the required statistics of the new county showed that the area of the proposed county would be 453 square miles, taking 244 square miles from Decatur and 209 square miles from Thomas. The population of the new county would be 17,714, taking 9,283 from Decatur and 8,431 from Thomas, leaving in Decatur 27,092, saving in Thomas 25,441. The taxable value of the property in the proposed new county is $963,332.

Decatur's Protest.

Judge D. W. Meldrim, of Savannah, represented Decatur county in the opposition to Grady. He submitted a number of petitions against the new county signed by persons living in the section of the county affected.

The first witness against the new county was Martin Harrell, of Decatur county. He stated that he was a farmer living in the section affected and that the people in his section were opposed to the new county because of the road law and the distance to the new county seat.

S. T. Mills, who also lived in the county of Decatur in the section affected, opposed the movement. He testified that the people of the section did not want it.

Representative Brinson, of Decatur, opposed the movement, and testified that the people of the section did not want the new county.

Representative Donaldson, of Decatur, also testified in opposition to the new county. He stated that if the new county was created as proposed the white section of Decatur would be cut off; that 90 per cent of the people living in the section affected were whites. Mr. Donalson stated that the negroes were already in the majority in Decatur and that the county would be seriously affected.

Senator Hand also testified against the proposed new county and said that from what he could learn the sentiment of the people affected was opposed to Grady.

W. M. Quinn, of Whigham, was against the new county. He said he had been approached by the republicans of the section and asked to keep hands off, because if the county of Grady was created the republicans would gain control of the county of Decatur. He was opposed to Grady.

Colonel Meldrim in closing for the opposition of Decatur made an eloquent appeal to the committee to allow the county of Decatur to remain as it is. He did not want the magnificent territory of Decatur dismantled. He contended that since the people in the territory affected and the representatives were opposed to the movement, it was nothing but reasonable for the committee to refuse to cut off any of this territory.

Thomas is Heard From.

Colonel W. M. Hammond, of Thomasville, represented the opposition to Grady from Thomas county. In his opening speech Colonel Hammond stated that he would prove by sworn statements that the area of Thomas county was 686 square miles and a fraction and not 788 square miles as contended by those proposing to create "Grady" county. He submitted a number of petitions, certificates and affidavits from persons in Thomas, in the section affected, opposed to the new county.

Jesse Ward, Jr., was the only witness examined from Thomas. Mr. Ward is from the Ochlochnee district of Thomas and stated that the people of his district were opposed to the movement, and that nearly all these people were whites. Colonel Hammond himself made statements regarding the distances to show that it would be more convenient for the people to get to Thomasville than to Cairo, the county seat of "Grady."

Colonel Hammond in closing made a strong speech on the question of white supremacy, urging the committee not to cause the people of that section to have to again go through the fight against the control by the black voter, contending that the new county would take away a large proportion of the white population.

For the New County.

W. B. Roddenberry, a farmer near Cairo, conducted the examination of witnesses in favor of the county of "Grady."

William Drew, of Thomas county, favored the new county, and testified as to inconveniences on account of distances. He said the sentiment of the people of his section favored the new county.

J. K. Godwin, of Thomas, proved a star witness by showing a desire to make a speech in favor of the new county. He made a plea for the sun-burned farmers who were greatly inconvenienced by the distance to Thomasville.

W. A. Shiver, of Decatur, testified as to distances and inconveniences of travel to Bainbridge. He favored the new county.

P. H. Herring, a county commissioner of Decatur county, wanted the new county of Grady, and stated that the people of his section favored the new county.

R. R. Terrell, an attorney of Whigham, Decatur county, favored the new county, and stated that 90 per cent of the people in the territory of Decatur affected, favored the new county. He stated that the reason why some of the people of Whigham opposed the new county was because they wanted to have Whigham the county seat.

J. J. Ragan, justice of the peace of Thomas, familiarly known in his section as "Uncle Jack," who stated that he had been a justice of peace in Georgia for fifty-three years, favored the new county. He stated that Governor Howell Cobb signed his first commission. He refused to accept a commission from Governor Bullock. He said he had helped to hold elections in Decatur, and wanted soon to help hold elections in "Grady."

Judge Hopkins closed for those favoring the new county. He devoted his time to answering the argument of the opposition relating to negro domination.

He gave statistics showing that a number of the counties of south Georgia had large negro majorities. He closed with an eloquent reference to the fact that in Georgia the white race intended to dominate the negro race and control the government of the state, no matter how large the negro majority.

The hearing on the county of Stephens will begin at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

BURGLAR WAS BULLET BORED.

Ike Austell, Negro Burglar Limps Into Court—Is Held on a $300 Bond.

Ike Austell, a negro, limped into the recorder's court yesterday afternoon much the worse for having had three bullet holes made in him while he was trying to escape after committing a burglary.

Austell broke into a carpenter's room at the corner of Ivy street and Edgewood avenue last week and pawned the tools he stole. Friday afternoon he was seen by Nathan Sinkovitz, of 144 Decatur street, who gave chase. Several other citizens and two officers joined in. The negro ran like a deer, but was quickly surrounded. He turned upon Sinkovitz, and to protect himself, the latter fired three times, hitting the mark every shot.

Austell was taken to the hospital, where he remained until yesterday. He denied that he had committed a burglary and begged to be let off because he had been shot. He was held for burglary in a $300 bond.

MOTHER'S NERVE SAVES CHILDREN

Mrs. Poole Shoots Mad Mastiff as It Made Attack.

Macon, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Three deliberate shots, the last of which took effect, from a revolver in the hands of Mrs. Wesley S. Poole, saved her five children and herself from the terrible attack of a mad mastiff this morning at the family home on Fourth street. The dog was wild and had made a dash for the children who were playing on the grass in the front yard.

Mrs. Poole heard the cries of the excited children and seized her husbands revolver just in time to meet the large animal at the door. His attention was turned from the children to the mother and she fired as he turned and quickened his pace. The first shot missed. Again she used the weapon with better reults, the second hot having entered the body, but thi did not stop the frenzied dog. As he was almost ready to grapple her, she aimed and fired a third time, the ball entering the head. The mad animal dropped back dead and Mrs. Poole dashed into the house almost frightened out of her wits. She kept her nerve and killed the animal in plain view of a police officer, who was making an effort to reach the scene. The dog had rabies and the children, as well as the mother, narrowly escaped a fearful experience.

BIG ADDITION TO FACTORY.

Swift Manufacturing Company Will Build Four-Story Plant.

Columbus, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—The directors of the Swift Manufacturing Company today voted to build a four-story addition to their cotton manufacturing plant at a cost of between $75,000 and $100,000. Five thousand spindles will be installed in the addition, making the plant a 20,000 spindle mill. The work will be completed in six months' time. The mill is driven by electricity generated by the Chattahoochee river, 2 miles away.

The new machinery will be driven partly by electricity and partly by steam, a steam engine formerly used by the company being put into service again.

Mead's Perfection

Rye Coffee

Rye Coffee, in some European countries, is so universally used that Coffee of any other kind is but little known. It is a noticeable fact that in sections of the world where Rye is freely used, both as a food and drink (non-alcoholic), a very healthy condition exists, and rarely, if ever, are such sections visited with epidemics of any kind.

PERFECTION RYE COFFEE is just what its name implies, "PERFECTION." It is a perfect hygenic product, containing the whole kernel of carefully selected Rye and other Cereals scientifically manufactured and skillfully blended.

It does not contain any chicory or other Coffee seasonings and substitutes, neither is there any chaff or screenings in it. While it has the delicate flavor of Mocha & Java Coffee, it is unlike these Coffees, in that it does not irritate the nerves nor produces biliousness. It positively aids digestion, is easily assimilated by the weakest stomach, and assists nature gently. It is a boon—if there is such a thing to the dyspeptic—and specially recommended for Kidney difficulties.

It is in every sense a pure Health-Food. It looks like coffee, tastes like coffee, smells like coffee, but is not coffee.

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT. If he don't keep it, write us, and we will tell you how to get 2 packages free of cost.

Games Played Today.

Shreveport in Atlanta.
New Orleans in Birmingham.
Memphis in Montgomery.
Little Rock in Nashville.

Such a game as the one played yesterday between Atlanta and Shreveport will go far toward reviving the somewhat dying interest in the sport in Atlanta.

The mighty Tom Fisher, who has on several occasions proved an easy victim for the Gate City team, yesterday received a dose of hitting which will last him for some time to come.

Score: Atlanta 7, Shreveport 5.

The contest was not remarkable for pitching, but it was a good, a rattling good game, with snap and ginger thrown into every department, with enough nice catches to keep the crowd alive, and with hits galore.

The crowd was also pleased by the fact that the local team did the greater part of the hitting, not measly Texas leaguers, but all line drives, balls hard to handle, hard to hold down within the single hit column.

On the last appearance in Atlanta of Tom Fisher a far different scene was presented to the local fans. Tom was a wonder that afternoon, and the game came to an end with the score 6 to 0 for Shreveport.

Archer Hitting Star.

Yesterday another tale was told. When hits were needed they came into being, on more than one occasion. James Archer was the hitting star of the afternoon, getting a double and a triple. In the sixth inning, when the Pirates were ahead of the game, Archer came to the rescue. Jordan had walked, and Morse had singled, and two men were out. Archer caught a nice one on the end of his bat and placed it to the beer sign. Both men scored. Archer remained on second, as the Rube failed in the pinch.

That the Reuben, Mr. Zellers, of Homestead, does not always fail in an emergency was shown in the eighth inning, when Atlanta came to bat with the score tied. Whitey Morse singled to center, and Archer was the next man at bat to distinguish himself. With two out he caught another good one, sending it to deep center, and reaching third base before the ball was relayed in. Morse scored, and a moment later Zellers sent a liner to center field and Archer scored.

Both teams made their first scores in the fourth inning.

Story of Game.

Shreveport scored first. Kennedy singled to left, and Weikart sacrificed him to second, reaching first himself when Zellers tried to nip the runner at second on the play. Hanley hit safe past second, and Kennedy scored. Hess went out from third to first. Evans singled to center and Weikart and Hanley scored. Miller groundered to short, forcing Evans at second. Graffius singled over short, but Fisher popped out to first base.

Atlanta evened up in her half. In rapid succession Winters, Crozier, Stafford and Jordan singled. Winters and Crozier scored. Then Morse hit to short, and Jordan was out at second, but Stafford scored on the play. McCay hit safe, but Archer went out from pitcher to first base.

Zellers, the new pitcher, showed up nicely.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

Contagious Blood Poison more thoroughly poisons the blood than any other disease. Every part of the body is affected when the virus becomes intrenched in the circulation; red eruptions break out on the skin, the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the neck and groins swell, the hair falls out, copper-colored splotches appear on the body, etc.

I was afflicted with blood poison, and the best doctors did me no good, though I took their treatment faithfully. In fact I seemed to get worse all the while. I took almost every so-called blood remedy, but they did not seem to reach the disease, and had no effect whatever. I was disheartened, for it seemed that I would never be cured. At the advice of a friend I then took S. S. S. and began to improve. I continued the medicine, and it cured me completely.
Hamlet, N. C. W. R. NEWMAN.

So highly contagious is this disease that many a life has been ruined by a friendly hand shake or from using the toilet articles of one affected with the poison. To cure this hideous and hateful disease a constitutional remedy is required. S. S. S. goes down to the very root of the trouble and forces out every particle of the virus from the blood and cures the disease permanently. S. S. S. is purely vegetable and drives out the trouble, root and branch, and no signs of it are ever seen again. Those who have been cured by S. S. S. can feel assured that none of the poison is left in the blood to transmit to innocent offspring. The entire body is built up and the blood made pure, rich and healthy by this great remedy. Book with instructions for home treatment and any medical advice desired will be given free of charge.

PURSE TAKEN IN BY CAUGHNAWAGA

Saratoga Meeting Opened in Drizzling Rain.

Winner Had Full Length Ahead of Waterlight To Spare When the Wire Was Reached—Third Place Was Taken by Beldame.

Saratoga, N. Y., July 31.—Dull grey skies and drizzling rain, a slow track and the usual large crowd marked the opening of the Saratoga race meeting today. Staunch old Caughnawaga captured the feature event of the day, the Saratoga handicap, for his owner, John Saunford in easy style, outfooting such cracks as Ort Wells, Beldame and Tayna. There was a gap of nearly a length between Caughnawaga and Brady's Waterlight as they passed the judge's stand. Waterlight beat Beldame by half a length and these three finished in a division by themselves.

After the breakaway, Tanya took the lead and held it to the second turn, where Wild Mint picked it up. Waterlight moved up on the far turn into second position. As they turned into the home stretch Caughnawaga came through the bunch and thereafter never headed.

Only two finished in the Ballston steeplechase out of a field of four starters. The Piedmont stables, Garter Knot, (added) at 15 to 1 shot, fell, and Castalian, the 7 to 10 favorite, threw his rider on the first turn.

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs: Broad Cloth, 109 (Martin, 2 to 1, won; Czaraphine, 100 (McDaniel), 11 to 5, second; King Pepper, 105 (Walsh), 20 to 1 third. Time, 1:15. Israelite, Goldsmith, Jack Ratkin, Regal Zanda, Major Pelham, Good Eye, Chieftain and Sovereign ran.

SECOND RACE—The Ballston steeplechase, short course: Jimmy Lane, 139 (Owens), 13 to 5, won; Steelmaker, 132 (Finnegan), 12 to 1, second. Time, 4:37 2-5. Castalian threw rider; Garter Knot fell.

THIRD RACE—The flash, 5½ furlongs: Burgomaster, 125 (Hildebrand), 4 to 5, won; Gallavant, 122 (O'Neill), 8 to 1, second; Vender, 125 (Shaw), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:08 3-5. Velours, Mohawk II, Don Diego, Penryn and The Irishman ran.

FOURTH RACE—The Saratoga handicap, 1¼ miles: Caughnawaga, 119 (Burns) 6 to 1, won; Waterlight, 108 (Knapp), 6 to 1, second; Beldame, 120 (O'Neill), 9 to 2, third. Time, 2:07. Wild Mint, Tanya, Mollie Brant, Ort Wells and Lord of the Vale ran. Alan-a-Dale left at post.

FIFTH RACE—Mile: Mad Mullah, 105 (McDaniel), 9 to 10, won; Lady Ellison, 97 (Baird), 7 to 1, second; Canteen, 105 (Hildebrand), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:42. The Gadfly, Barabossa, Dinah Shad, Gray Lad, Ascension and Shenandoah ran.

SIXTH RACE—Five and a half furlongs: Blair Athol, 112 (Burns), 2 to 1, won; Adonis, 109 (Miller), 5 to 2, second; Sandy D, 112 (Austin), 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:09 1-5. Peeping Tom, Dave Lewis, Nostrome, Ingleside, Topsail, Reidmore, Eltopia, Orizon and Azure ran.

HALE AND SUGGS IN CLOSE GAME

Hale Won Fourth Game From Former Team Mates.

Moutgomery, July 31.—It was a pitchers' battle today. Oldring's hit to left, with a runner on second, winning the game for Montgomery in the last half of the ninth. A fact spoken of today is that Hale, who was released by Memphis, has pitched four games against his old team this season, winning them all, and three of them being shut outs. The fans were in a dangerous mood toward Umpire Burke and one empty bottle thrown at him struck the official. Attendance, 1,000. Score:

INSURANCE COMPANIES SUED.

Charged That Fraudulent Investments Were Made in Seventeen.

Boston, July 31.—Hugh W. Ogden, receiver for the Ubero Plantation Company of Boston, filed a suit in equity in the Massachusetts supreme court today against Ferdinand Borges, an officer in the Ubero company, and seventeeen life insurance companies in which Borges claims to have had invested. The suit follows authority granted to the receivers by the United States circuit court to sue for alleged fraud and negligence and to recover money for the benefit of the investors. The insurance companies are asked to say whether Borges has in fact invested Ubero funds with them.

PRIVATES IN OLIVE DRAB TOO MUCH LIKE OFFICERS

Benicia, Cal., July 31.—An order has just been received at the Benicia barracks announcing that all olive drab uniforms now in the possession of the enlisted men must be confiscated at once. In the whole United States army there are, it is said, but 300 of these olive drab uniforms among the men, and of this number about seventy are in the Benicia barracks.

The reason for this wholesale confiscation is that the enlisted men, when dressed in these uniforms, can hardly be distinguished from the officers and on several occasions mistakes have been made through their use.

MAKE BIG RUSH TO GET FARMS

Crowds on Hand for Opening of Uintah Reservation

Grand Junction, Colo., July 31.—Eight private detectives have arrived in Grand Junction to assist the local authorities to keep order during the expected rush of land seekers to register for the opening of the Uintah reservation. Mayor Bunting has appointed many special police officers and it is intended to give law-breakers and criminals who come here during the period of registration the closest attention. Gambling has been prohibited.

Eight registration officials from the general land office at Washington are here, a like number at Provo and three each at Price and Vernal. About 3,000 applicants a day can be registered here. Many coffee houses and lunch houses are being put up for the benefit of the "sooners." Estimates upon the number that will come fluctuate between 10,000 and 8,000, but the steady inflow of early arrivals warrants the expectation of a big rush.

Everything will be ready for the opening registration tomorrow. There are about 6,000 homesteads to be distributed, containing all kinds of land. All registrations must be made in person. If the necessary requirements, such as being eligible to a homestead, etc., are fulfilled, all persons registered will be given numbers. These numbers will then be thrown together and will be drawn at Provo, Utah, beginning August 17.

It is expected that the mineral claims will be thrown open at once after the other land is taken. But this is unsettled yet, according to Commissioner Richard's statement.

ALL ON WATCH FOR BLUEBEARD

Hoch Will Have Other Troubles If He Escapes Gallows.

Chicago, July 31.—With the possibility of John Hoch securing a retrial and an acquittal on the charge of murdering Mrs. Marie Woeloker Hoch, the authorities of Cincinnati and St. Louis have been in communication with the state's attorney's office relative to the crimes of bigamy and the murder that Hoch is said to have committed in those cities.

Even in event of the condemned man escaping sentence already passed upon him it is said that enough prosecutions confront him elsewhere to consume several years' term.

CONSTIPATION.

Brain Workers, Bookkeepers, Stenographers, and others of sedentary habits are the chief sufferers from constipation and all its miserable symptoms, such as dull headaches, dizziness, nervousness, palpitation and a general uncomfortable tired feeling at all times. In all such cases Daniel Spring Mineral Water acts most beneficially and pleasantly. It contains just the mineral properties the human system requires. This water does not purge or gripe, but is a gentle laxative that cools and cleanses the system. Daniel Spring Water is a fine tonic that makes you eat and sleep well. It is a pure spring water, a refreshing beverage that seems to rejuvenate and invigorate the entire body. It is delivered in case of 6 half gallon bottles for 45 cents. Both Phones 2434.

For many years I had been the victim of liver disease and constipation. I suffered very much from indigestion. At times could scarcely eat anything that would agree with me. I had become quite feeble when I commenced to drink Daniel Mineral Water nearly two years ago. It helped me from the very start. I am now well. I drink it every day. It is a good water and I commend it to all my friends who suffer from such troubles. JAS. T. GRESHAM, Daniel Shoe Store.

Daniel Spring Mineral Water is put up in half-gallon bottles with Green and White Labels.

GRAVES ADMITS HE TOOK MONEY

Man Who Claimed He Was Robbed Confesses to Theft.

Palatka, Fla., July 31.—John T. Graves, an employee of the Southern Express Company, who claimed he was gagged and tied on the morning of the 29th about 3 o'clock and the safe robbed of about $2,000, as previously published, confessed this afternoon to having committed the theft and gave up the money, which amounted to $1,835.10.

He first hid the money in an incubator in his room in the express office. Later in the day he removed it to the union depot, secreting it in an ice box. He was arraigned before Justice Roylon this afternoon and was held on $2,500 bail, in default of which he was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury at the next term of the criminal court.

TUG STOPPED DURING STORM.

Members of Hoboken Pleasure Party Given Severe Fright.

New York, July 31.—Two barges carrying an excursion party numbering about 2,000 towed by a tug came perilously near being dashed on the rocks at North Yonkers last night at the height of a severe rain and wind storm. Another tug boat rushed to the rescue.

The excursion party hailed from Hoboken, N. J. After a day at Review Grove, opposite Yonkers, the crowd boarded the barges for the return down the Hudson. A severe storm raged at the time and only a short distance from the grove the engine on the tug stopped suddenly. Every effort to start it was futile.

Meanwhile the two barges and the tug drifted northeast toward the Yonkers shore, where it was seen that the tug had lost control. The captain whistled for help and a large number of small river craft responded.

A launch was quickly dispatched to Yonkers and summoned another tug. When the latter reached the excursion party women and children were badly frightened, but owing to the efforts of the crews of the barges playing the band order was preserved.

The tug made fast to the barges and pulled them out into the river when they were within 100 yards of the rocks.

WOULD BEAR COTTON PRICE.

English Spinners Take Steps To Keep Down Price.

London, July 31.—At an emergency meeting of the international committee of the International Cotton Congress, held today, it was decided to urge the spinners in Europe and America to refrain from buying American cotton during the next three months, except for immediate wants, and thus try to obviate the danger of the next cotton season, commencing with raw material at the high prices at present prevailing.

The committee contends that there will be plenty of time when actual figures are available regarding the new crop to consider the situation that will then arise and should the supply prove less than the demand to take such steps as may be necessary to meet the condition.

At the same time the committee feels sure that the surplus from last year's crop guarantees a full supply, even in the event of the next crop proving small.

The committee decided to organize a service for the obtaining of correct information as to the actual consumption of cotton throughout the world on the lines proposed by the congress at Manchester in June last, and hopes to soon publish the details of the scheme.

FRENCH TROOPS KILL GERMANS

Joint Commission Named To Investigate Affair on Frontier.

Berlin, July 31.—An official report from the governor of the Cameroons was received today by the colonial division of the foreign office concerning the affair on the French Congo frontier. It says that Senegalese soldiers forcibly closed the German station at Missum-Missum, and plundered the merchandie. Captain Scheunemanne, who was at the time in the southern part of the district, was shot on his march to Missum-Missum by French Senegalese troops and the Germans returned the fire, killing five and capturing four.

The governor of the Cameroons, upon receiving a report of the affair from the commander of the German troops, Colonel Mueller, sent a protest to Bagun, the residence of the French local governor, and also communicated with the governor general of the French Congo in Brazzaville, who proposed that a joint commission should immediately be sent to the spot to investigate the trouble and to arrange for the prevention of such incidents.

To this the German administration agreed.

MUST NOT ADVANCE RATES.

Insurance Commissioner Folk So Notifies Board of Fire Underwriters.

Nashville, Tenn., July 31.—A contemplated advance of 25 per cent in fire insurance rates in Nashville has led State Insurance Commissioner Folk to notify the local board of underwriters that such a step must not be taken. The commissioner's action follows an opinion from State Attorney General Cates, based on the anti-compact law passed by the last legislature of Tennessee.

Heavy losses by fire in Nashville this year influenced the insurance interests to investigate local conditions, as a result of which the Western Union advised the advance to take effect August 1. A member of the local board said tonight that he did not believe the companies would now advance rates. Whether or not they would withdraw their business from Nashville, he said, remains to be seen.

MASON ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Weathers' Gun Fired as He Fell, Fatally Wounding Mason.

Rome, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Jack Mason was accidentally killed by Frank Weathers, near Rome, on Saturday night.

The details have just reached Rome, showing that Weathers fell while the two men were coming down a hill near the Holbrook place, about 12 miles out of Rome. His gun was discharged and the load of shot entered Mason's leg. Medical aid was not accessible and the man bled to death.

Waller Mason, the father of the victim, who is an old man, when told of his son's death suffered a serious collapse, and it is feared he may die.

Trotting Meet Called Off.

Readville, Mass., July 31.—The opening of the midsummer meet of trotters at the Readville trotting park scheduled for today was postponed until tomorrow on account of mist and fog.

JACKSON SOLD TO CLEVELAND

Will Join the Napoleons This Week in New York.

Charles Jackson has been sold to the Cleveland team in the American League. The deal was completed yesterday afternoon and Jackson will join the Clevelanders in New York.

Lajoie's team has been playing in hard luck of late and several of the pitchers are out of gear. The New York Americans took the first two games played in the series. Secretary Barnard, of the Clevelanders, believed that new pitchers were necessary and so began a deal for Jackson.

Jackson has been wonderfully successful at home, winning every game pitched in Atlanta. He was equally unfortunate on the road, losing all but one game.

Secretary Erhlich, of the Shreveport team, says that the chances are all in favor of Shreveport playing her games on the road and then resuming play at home as the original schedule provided.

He says that Shreveport has instituted a rigid quarantine against New Orleans and that 300 guards are posted. According to the secretary the Shreveport club would lose $5,000 if forced to finish up on the road.

Secretary Erhlich is also sore on Birmingham, where he claims that his team was robbed out of one game.

A deal has been completed by the Shreveport management by which Billy Bartley goes to the Philadelphia Americans at the close of the season. Bartley is a good pitcher and gives promise of being a star.

Matty Matthews was in Atlanta yesterday shaking hands with all his friends. Matty is under a five days' suspension, due to his pugnacious habits. Fritz, of the Shreveport club, was umpiring in Birmingham and because Matty did not like a decision he pasted Fritz one. The president of the league did the rest.

Jackson fans did not relish the parting with their star pitcher, Arthur Raymond, and same harsh things were said of the management for selling him to Atlanta.

The Jackson News said of Raymond: "The regret over Raymond's departure was not one-sided. The big fellow was all broken up over the transaction, notwithstanding the fact that it gives him a salary of $200 per month with a mighty good chance of being in the American or National League next season. During his engagement with the Jackson team he has made a host of friends and was undoubtedly the most popular player who ever donned a home uniform. The plain fact is Raymond almost owned the town. Nothing was too good for him and he always made a hatful of money on the big games, a shower of silver and greenbacks being the inevitable result of a victory in a double-header.

"It was undoubtedly good business, however, to accept Atlanta's offer. The baseball season is drawing near to a close, the schedule ending on September 4, and of course there is a possibility that it may end sooner on account of the quarantine. The local management desires to quit with its books balanced if possible and the sale of Raymond, while it does not clear off outstanding accounts, will help a great deal toward this much-desired end."

Savannah Buys Welsh.

Savannah, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Boyer, who left tonight for Augusta, announced that he had bought Conn Welsh from Baltimore. Welsh will join the Savannah team in Macon, and will probably pitch Saturday's game.

Americus 2, Montezuma 1.

Americus, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—In the finest ball game played here this season, Americus beat Montezuma this afternoon by a score of 2 to 1. Several thousand spectators witnessed the game. Montezuma scored her only run in the first inning, while Americus scored two in the last half of the ninth inning. Lamar and Shipler again constituted Americus' invincible battery.

Quakers Win Cricket Match.

Philadelphia, July 31.—The cricket match between the Gentlemen of Philadelphia and the Marylebone Eleven of London ended today in victory for the home players by 61 runs.

The match was started on Friday and when play was resumed today the Philadelphians had only one wicket in hand in the second inning. They lost this after scoring five runs, making their total for the second inning 239 or a grand total of 456 for the two innings. The Englishmen made 244 runs in their first inning and were all out in their second turn at bat for 151, or a grand total of 395.

Covington 6, Monroe 4.

Covington, Ga., July 31.—(Special.)—Covington 6, Monroe 4, was the result of the game of baseball played on the local diamond this afternoon.

The game was notable for the excellent fielding of both teams, a long running catch by King, of Covington, and a similar play by Mecklin, of Monroe.

SELLING ACTIVE AT ELEVEN CENTS

Claimed That Figure Discounts Bullish Crop Conditions.

The Market Ruled Very Nervous and Irregular, the Close Being Barely Steady at a Net Loss of 12 to 16 Points for the Day.

New York, July 31.—While the day's news included no fresh bearish factors, but on the contrary, appeared to be of rather a bullish average, the cotton market was unsettled, and closed at a net decline of 12 to 16 points. The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 10 points on covering and bull support, encouraged by bullish crop reports and higher Liverpool cables. New Orleans was relatively weak, however, and with Liverpool selling off shortly after the local opening, prices here soon lost ground under liquidation and bear pressure. Reports of high temperature in Texas tended to offset an otherwise favorable weather map, and toward midday there was a rally from 10.91 to 11 for October, but the gain was promptly lost, and during the afternoon the market was generally weak in the absence of support, closing barely steady at the lowest level of the session. Sales were estimated at 375,000 bales. Two private crop condition reports were issued, one placing the condition at 76 and the other at 75 per cent as compared with the official report of 91.6 per cent at this time last year. But bears claimed a low condition report had been discounted and expectations of a favorable weekly report tomorrow probably, prevent general support.

New Orleans Cotton Market.

New Orleans, July 31.—Spot cotton dull; sales 550 bales, including 450 to arrive. Quotations down 1-8c.

Futures opened 9 to 10 points lower and gradually receded 13 to 15 points additional on realizing by weak longs who did not wish to carry their holdings over bureau day, next Thursday. The conservative element do not believe the report will show anything lower than 77 to 79 and express the opinion that a lower report would cause an advance of 1-2c a pound in cotton. The market closed weak with net losses of 32 points on August, 28 on September and the other positions 23 to 24 points.

The Dry Goods Market.

New York, July 31.—The month ends with prices on the upward trend in the dry goods market, and although buyers are not operating for the future, they are endeavoring to secure goods for immediate delivery. Jobbing is quiet.

The Liverpool Cotton Market.

Liverpool July 31.—12:15 p. m.—Cotton, spot, demand limited with price steady; middling uplands 6.09; sales 6,000 bales; American 4,800; speculation and export 500; receipts 9,000; American 8,300.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

COTTON—The week begins with better advices from Liverpool and better advices from the crop. Prices abroad were unexpectedly higher, and our opening showed some strength and considerable demand. This demand soon diminished under free offerings, and it became apparent that at about 11c or October, there was much cotton for sale. There is small success in urging the public to buy at present figures, and the charitable operators, who so freely advise others of their best course, laugh at their dupes' credulity. On the offerings, the market showed little resistance, a temporary rally left prices weaker than before. Fine rains are reported, and much improvement in the Memphis district during the past ten days. The trade is beginning to think 11c high. The spot market was quiet at 10 points decline.

Ware & Leland.

COTTON—The market today showed the effects of the absence of conviction on the part of the general public, the intense bearishness of a few professionals and the continued bullishness on the part of those who have made the money from 9c up. It was first a rise then a fall, then a rise, and such frequent price changes that the market resembled a ship without a rudder. This is due to better weather, fine rains, the high price, the fear of a bullish report tomorrow and another on Thursday, and the general confusion that exists over the whole cotton situation. The disclosures in Washington have put the trade out to sea, and it will take some radical news to give the market its bearings. The one thing that was evident this morning was the absence of real buying power. The market broke in a most suspicious way, and one that was not likely to encourage buying at the moment. We have not been willing to advise short selling for a long time, but as things look now, the market is anything but a safe purchase. Prices already discount at 10,500,000 crops, and we very much doubt if a crop of 10,000,000 bales will pass into consumption at 12c. There is more reason to hope this crop will be 11,000,000 than to fear it will be 10,000,000 bales at the present writing. The market is held up by the fear of a low bureau. There is cotton for sale at 11c in large quantities.

WHEAT—There was buying at the start on rains in the northwest, smaller world's shipments and the bullish Russian news. Shorts covered freely on predictions of frost for southern Minnesota, but the most bullish factor was the admission by The Northwestern Miller of the rust in North Dakota. The market was very nervous, a stiff fight was put up by the bull element, although the large primary receipts and the first increase in the visible on the new crop year, as well as the heavy movement of winter wheat, were bearish factors that could not be ignored. July went to a big discount, but the action of the deferred futures shows the resistance to bear pressure, and there was influential buying of September and December that brought about a strong close. Advances were met with resistance, but on the strong spots we advise the covering of shorts.

CORN—The market was bid up early, a few shorts covering. The advance was taken advantage of to sell on very heavy. The outlook is of the best. It has made sentiment very bearish; in fact, probably too much so for the time being, and we would not be surprised to witness sharp reactions, as there was quite a lot of buying of September by the Armour house and there is a possibility that receipts may work off some. In any event, we would favor covering shorts around present levels.

OATS—This cereal was heavy, July breaking badly. Considerable liquidation appeared on the big receipts and expectations of a very large movement. Declines have been extensive and rallies are due, although the bears are very confident that lower prices will be realized.

PROVISIONS—There was some selling of product by commission houses, and there was more yellow fever talk from the south with a case reported here, but the packers were aggressive buyers, and there is talk of a bull movement in pork.

STOCKS—American stocks ruled higher in London and prices at the opening here were well above Saturday's close. For the first few minutes of trading the market was buoyant, but the heavy offerings of professionals soon forced a reaction. Before noon a general advance occurred in industrials. The pool in copper took advantage of the advance in the price of copper metal to push up their specialty. Smelters was very active throughout the session and closed at an advance of more than 3 points. There are indications that a further sharp rise will take place in this stock. Shortly after 1 o'clock another fractional reaction occurred, but prices rallied in the last hour and final quotations were almost without exception the highest of the day. The Hoadley pool is again active in Tennessee Coal and Iron and members of this crowd predict par for the stock. Although we believe that lower prices will be seen during the crop moving period, it is our opinion that the present advance will continue for at least three weeks.

Southern Exchange.

COTTON—Liverpool cables were strong and influenced our market in like degree at the opening, but it seemed impossible to uphold this strength throughout the day. With only moderate offerings prices sagged off, due to a lack of interest in the option list by the larger speculative following. The private condition reports were of character to stimulate prices, but the 11c level prevailed. The weather map showed rains in scattered localities throughout the belt for yesterday with a forecast of fair weather for tonight and tomorrow and scattered showers. Very high temperatures are reported from parts of Texas from 95 to 104, having been reported in the Galveston districts. The numerous private condition reports given in advance of agricultural bureau and Journal of Commerce for July are not encouraging as to any improvement in the yielding capacity of the plant, while, on the other hand, the crop condition as a whole suggests a loss in percentage during the month of July. Previous observations fail to show where the plant has ever recovered its lost vitality after this date, while it is natural to expect further decadence from this time on as a result of the effect of fruitage. Present conditions warrant a yield considerably below the average, which will likely be evidenced in the trend of prices as these influences develop.

The Metal Market.

New York, July 31.—The London tin market was a shade lowe rat &49 5s for spot and £148 2s 6d for futures, but was firm locally at 32.62 1-2@32.75.

Copper firm and higher in both markets. Spot closed in London at £68 7s 6d and futures at £68 12s 6d. Locally steady; lake and electrolytic 15.25@15.50; casting 14.87 1-2@15.12 1-2.

Lead unchanged at 4.60@4.70 in the local market and at £13 17s 4d in London.

Spelter easier in London at £23 17s 6d, but continued firm locally with prices a shade higher at 5.55@5.65.

Iron closed at 49s 4d in Glasgow and at 46s 6d in Middlesboro. Locally quiet but steady; No. 1 foundry, northern, $16.25@17; No. 2, do. do. $15.75@16.50; No. 1 do. southern $15.75@16.75; No. 2 do. do. $15.50@16.25.

St. Louis, July 31.—Lead steady at $4.57 1-2@4.60. Spelter firm at $5.45@5.50.

ORDERS COME FROM FAR AWAY AMSTERDAM IN ANSWER TO "AD" IN THE CONSTITUTION

Atlanta Ga. 7-31-1905.

Special Attention Given to Mail Orders.

Constitution Publishing Co.,
Atlanta, Ga.

Gentlemen:-

Since contracting with you for space in your valuable paper, we are pleased to state that we are more than gratified with the results.

We have not only received orders throughout the entire South and West, but we have just received an order amounting to $412.00 from a large firm in Amsterdam, Holland, which will be exported through the Custom House next week.

Being so impressed from the fact that the little ad. in your paper has brought us such results, we herewith enclose you the original order from Amsterdam and will ask you to kindly return same to us.

While we have a force of salesmen on the road, it will be our policy in future to increase our space with you and decrease our number of salesmen.

Yours very truly,
SOUTHERN SUSPENDER WORKS,
By G. W. SEAY, President.

The Southern Suspender Company began business in this city a little over three years ago. Today it is selling its products throughout the nation and is having wonderful success. The foregoing letter shows that the Atlanta Constitution circulates in Europe and that the Southern Suspender Company is receiving orders from across the seas.

It pays the manufacturer to advertise.

Pianos, 118 Beautiful Witney Pianos To Be Sold, Each To Go at the Low Price of $262.

ON TERMS OF $2.00 DOWN AND $2 PER WEEK—Direct from the factory to your home, we paying freight to your railroad depot. This is the greatest BARGAIN ever offered. Have you ever had such terms offered you before. We greatly doubt it, and we could not think of doing so if we were following the old style way of selling that is so common among some. We are running our business under the low price system. We do not care for a big, costly store, where we would have to charge the people more. You know some one has to pay those big store rents, and big expense that it takes to keep up such stores. Whether you wish to buy or not you will be a welcome visitor at our well arranged sample room.

Much attention given to out of town orders. Write or call at once.

FOR SALE—FARMS.

GOVERNOR BROWN'S CHEROKEE COUNTY ESTATE FOR SALE AUGUST 1, 1905.

First: The Canton farm, where Governor Brown was binding wheat when nominated for governor. It consists of five hundred acres, and is within one-half mile of the court house, at Canton. About sixty acres of creek bottom, and a great deal of original timber. Two creeks run through this property, and a mill site where once a mill was upon it.

Second: The finest river farm in upper Georgia, in the gold belt, within six miles of Canton and four miles of Holly Springs. Good roads to both of these railroad stations. Seven hundred and forty acres (740) of land. About one hundred and seventy (170)) acres of river bottom, and the best timbered plantation in upper Georgia. It has been in the family for nearly sixty years.

Third: Twenty-three (23) of the prettiest town lots in Canton, on the second block from the court house. Fine place for a summer home.

One-third cash. Balance in six and twelve months, with 7 per cent interest. Don't put your money in banks or bonds or stocks of corporations, or life insurance, which can be affected by frenzied finance. Put it into real estate, and it won't run away from you. Best and safest savings bank in the world.

Attend the sale at Canton, Georgia, first Tuesday in August, and buy the property.

RAILWAYS SAGGED ON PROFIT TAKING

Metal Stocks Moved in Perfect Accord.

Enough Improvement in Prices Late in the Day To Overcome Most of What Had Been Yielded. The Close Was Firm.

New York, July 31.—Today's stock market had to face the ordeal of profit taking on last week's advance, which is an almost inevitable process on a Monday after a preceding rise in prices. The action of the market while the process of digestion was going on was encouraging, a considerable absorption being effected without serious impairment of prices. There was nothing in the day's news to affect the market immediately either way, and the working out on normal lines of previous steps in the speculation was relied upon to move prices. Industrials having to do with the metal trades, either as producers or consumers of iron, steel, copper, lead, etc., moved in perfect accord, the United States Steel stocks being the noted exception. The railroad equipment stocks and the electrical companies were included. Published reports of active conditions in these trades and advance in the market price of copper were held to account for this movement. The fact that the advances did not prevent the prices of railroad stocks from sagging was attributed partly to the profit taking in prices on these stocks. There was some depression caused by the revival of black rust damage reports from the spring wheat belt by authorities deemed conservative. Consideration of the yellow fever outbreak perhaps had more force today than was the case last week. Railroad officials spoke in very cheerful and confident tones both on current traffic and of prospects, and assertions attributed to the executive head of the mine workers of his sentiment against talk at this time of strike dangers were regarded with satisfaction. Lackawanna lifted its record price to 425 1-2 as an incident of the day. The money market remained nominally very easy, however, there was enough improvement in prices late in the day to overcome most of what had been yielded and the closing tone was firm.

SENTIMENT WAS BULLISH IN WHEAT

Talk of Famine in Russia Owing to Damage Factor.

September at the Close Was 7-8c Lower—Corn Lost 3-4 to 7-8c and Oats 3-8 to 1-2c—Provisions Closed 10 to 27 1-2c Higher.

Chicago, July 31.—Talk of famine in Russia owing to damage to the wheat crop imparted strength to the wheat market here today. Bullish sentiment was augmented by an official forecast of frost tonight in southern Minnesota. At the close September wheat was up 7-8c, corn off 3-4@7-8c, oats down 3-8@1-2c and provisions up from 10@27 1-2c.

Influenced by bullish news by cable, wheat opened firm, September 1-8@3-8c higher at 84 5-8@84 7-8c. The factor of chief importance was a report of a practical failure of the crops in a majority of the grain growing districts of Russia. Soon after the opening here the market gained additional strength on a weather bureau prediction of frost tonight in southern Minnesota. During the first hour commission houses and pit traders were active bidders, but offerings were light and September advanced to 85 7-8c. Toward noon the market reacted somewhat on selling brought out by liberal primary receipts. An increase of 1,479,000 bushels in the visible supply was an additional bearish influence. The decline of about 2c in July had a depresing effect on distant months. Prior to the close shorts became active buyers and caused renewed strength, the market closing strong with September at 85 3-8c. Clearances equaled 13,500 bushels. The amount on passage decreased 3,376,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,647,000 bushels, against 1,291,500 a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 736 cars, against 538 last week and 330 a year ago.

Weather extremely favorable for the maturing of the new crop caused heavy liquidation of corn, resulting in a decided weakness, as also did liberal receipts. The market closed weak and near the lowest of the day. September opened unchanged to 1-8c lower at 52 1-4@53 3-8, sold up to 52 3-8@52 1-2c and then declined to 51 1-4c, and closing at 51 1-2@51 5-8c. Receipts 267 cars, 83 contract.

Free movement of the new crop gave a weak tone to the oats market. The break was effective. The market closed weak near the lowest point of the day. September opened unchanged to 1-8c lower at 27 5-8@27 3-4c, sold to 27 1-8c and closed at 27 1-4@27 3-8c. Receipts 388 cars.

Provisions were firm throughout the session. The market received good support from packers. An advance of 5@10c in the price of hogs was a strengthening influence. More activity was manifested than for several weeks past. September pork closed 27 1-2c higher at $13.45. Lard was up 10c at $7.35 and ribs 17 1-2c higher at $8.12 1-2.

Estimated receipts tomorrow: Wheat 506 cars; corn 355 cars; oats 456 cars; hogs 22,000 head.

A CORNER IN HEAT

When putting in a heating plant for your residence, don't you want the most heat for the least coal, for the least money, and at the least bother?

Our Seamless Warm Air Furnace not only saves in fuel the difference in cost inside of three years over the other style of furnaces, but at the end of three years begins to pay a dividend.

Besides, ours is made of the highest grade of Locomotive Steel and has no fire pots to burn out, costing $25 to $30 to replace. Our Furnace is guaranteed dust, soot and gas proof. See what Mr. C. R. Winship, 630 Edgewood avenue, says of our Furnace:

"The results obtained from the Seamless Warm Air Furnace which you installed in my house last fall has been perfectly satisfactory in every respect. I had no difficulty in keeping the temperature 70 degrees during the coldest weather, consuming during the entire winter about 10 tons of run of mine coal, price $3.25 per ton, delivered. We were not troubled with disagreeable gases, smoke and dust coming through the registers, as is usually the case when other makes of furnace are used. I consider it the best on the market."

Mr. Joel Chandler Harris, for whom we took out the other kind of hot air furnace and put in our Seamless Warm Air Furnace, says we saved him $100 on fuel the first year.

We have customers running our Furnaces on less than $18 a year. If you want the best and most economical Furnace made, get us to estimate on our Seamless.

Five Injured in Wreck.

Joliet, Ills., July 31.—Five persons were injured in an accident to an eastbound passenger train on the Rock Island railroad today about a mile west of Joliet. It is thought none of the injured will die. The train was a second section due in Chicago at 7:25 a. m. The accident occurred at a switch which had just been opened for a work train at a gravel pit. The passenger train ran on the side track, striking the work train. A section of a Pullman sleeper was torn out.
